B R A T Hundred.

B R A T,

S a Vicaridge in the Hundred of Bray, of which it is the only Parish; Patron the Bishop of Oxford; Incumbent
the Reverend Mr. Browne.

Camden says, the Bibroci inhabited these Parts, who submitted themselves to Julius
Vol. III. B Cæsar,

Cæsar, upon his crossing the Thames not far from hence, and this he partly deduces from the Name Bibraete in France, now contracted into Bray, and seems to think no Place corresponds so exactly to the Situation of the Bibroci as this. I have not indeed heard of any Remains of Roman Antiquity found here, but in all the adjacent Parts they have occurred, so that these Parts might in all probability be not unknown to the Romans.

Against the North Wall of the Chancel, towards the East, is a large Monument, containing the Busto of a Man in a Gown, leaning his Hands on a Scull: By him his Wife, holding a Book in her Hands; and this Inscription under them.

*If what I was thou seekest to know,
 These Lynes my Character shall shew,
 Those Benefits that God me lent,
 With Thanks I tooke, and freely spent;
 I scorned what Plaines could not gett,
 And next to Treason hated Debt;
 I loved not those that stirr'd up Strife,
 True to my Friend, and to my Wife;
 The latter here by me I have,
 We had one Bed, and have one Grave.
 My Honesty was such, that I
 When Death came, feared not to dye.*

In

In the said North Wall is another Monument, in which are the Figures of a Man and his Wife, kneeling at a Desk, engraven on Brass Plates, with the following Inscription.

*When Oxford gave thee two Degrees in Art,
A Love possessed thee Master of my Heart.
Thy Colledge Fellowship thou left'st for myne,
And nought but Death could sep'rate thee*
[from thyne.

*Thirty Five Yeares we lived in wedlock Bands,
Conjoynd in our Hearts as well as Hands.
But Death the Bodies of best Friends divides,
And in the Earth's close Womb their Reliques* [hides ;
Tet here they are not lost, but sowne, that they May rise more Glorious at the Judgment Day.

Under the South Wall, near the East End of the South Ile, lies a Marble Grave-stone with the following Inscription on it.

MEMORIÆ SACRUM

On another Grave-stone, on a Brass Plate, are the Figures of a Man in a long Robe, standing on a Cushion, a Cap on his Head, and his Wife by him drest in the Habit of her Times, and this Inscription underneath their Feet.

mo
Cujus anime propicietur Deus.
Amen.

On a Grave-stone in the middle of the South Ile, on a Brass Plate, is this Inscription.

Hic jacet GULIELMUS SMITHE, Armiger, quondam Sereniss. Regine Elizabethæ, ad Arma, et scutellas serviens, que officia prius habuit ex dono Mariæ Regine, qui postquam digna laude vite sue cursum in fidei servicio Principum transegisset, obiit 28^o Die Octobris, Anno Dni. 1594. Etatis autem sue 84°.

Upon

Upon another Grave-stone, in the South Ile, is this Inscription.

Here lyeth the Body of BARTHOLOMEW SMITH, Gen. who dyed the 15th of June, 1638. aged 78.

Upon a Grave-stone, lying at the Foot of the former, under the Figures of a Man and his Wife in their usual Habits, on Brass, is this Inscription.

Pray for the Soules of John Foulser, and hys Wyfe; which John decelld the 24 Day of August, in the Yere of our Lord 1479. On whose Soules Ihesu have Mercy.

Under this are the Figures of his two Daughters.

On another Grave-stone, in the said Ile, is this Inscription.

Here lieth buried the Body of Mrs. ELIZABETH PARRY, Wife to HUGH PARRY, of New Windsor, Gen.

to JOHN PAGE, Esq; of this Parish. She dyed the 29 of May, in the Teare 1659.*

On the South Side of a great Pillar, erected between the South and middle Ile,
is fixed a Brass Plate, bearing the Effigies of a Man and his Wife praying at a Desk,
and under them is this Inscription.

*Neere unto this Place lyeth buried the Bodies of ARTHUR PAGE, of Walter Okeley, in the Parish of Bray, and County of Berks, Gent. who had to Wife SESSELY BROWNESOPP, Daughter of WILLIAM BROWNESOPP, Esq;
They had Issue one Son, EDWARD PAGE. The said Arthur deceased the 23 Day of Decemb. An^o. 1610. and the said Sessely dyed the 12th Day of March, An^o. 1598.*

On a Brass Plate fixed to a Grave-stone, under the Communion Table, is this Inscription.

Hic jacet Magister Willielmus Dyer, quondam Vicarius Ecclesie de

(9)

De Bray, qui obiit ultimo Die Januarii, An^o. Dni. 1440.
Cujus anime propicietur Deus.
Amen.

Lower, on the same Grave-stone, on a Brass Plate, is this Inscription:

Orate pro anima Dni. Thome atte Lude, Capellani.
Cujus anime propicietur Deus.
Amen.

Not far from the Entrance into the Chancel, is a Grave-stone bearing the following Inscription.

Here lyeth the Body of ELIZABETH MOSSE, Widdow of FRANCIS MOSSE, Citizen and Scrivener of London, who departed this Lyfe the 4th of March, in the 67th Year of her Age, Anno Domini, 1662.

On a Grave-stone, lying on the North Side of the Chancel, is this Inscription.

*Under this Marble resteth JAMES HUCKELL, Esq; who was Servant
to Three Princes, Queen Elizabeth, Vol. III. C King*

(10)

*King James, and King Charles; in Office Groome, Yeoman, and Serjeant of the Larder to the said Princes 49 Yeares. He lived in holy Wedlock with KATHARINE BROWNE, of Surrey, 48 Yeares and halfe, with much Comfort and Happines, and dyed in the Faith of Christ, Nov. 13. 1641.
aged 81.*

*Loe, here a Friend enclosed, now at rest,
Whose Soule, no doubt, is placed by the best.
His Purse was open both to Rich and Poore,
To Freind and Foe, so likewise was his Doore.
He aym'd at Peace in all his Course of Lyfe,
He hated Difference and avoyded Strife.
From whence it may be said he is in Bliss,
Which Christ affoards to none but those are His.
He hath a Conquest, being gone before,
Our Combatts are to come, our Sorrowes more.*

*Lastly, his Office found his Livery, sued now, bearing date 1641. Nov. 13.
To whose Memory KATHERINE his Wife, as a Memoriall of her Affection to her deceased Husband, imposed this Stone.*

On a Marble Grave-stone, Eastward of the former, is the following Inscription.

Here

*Here under lyeth the Body of JOHN RIXMAN, Gent. who deceased at his House at Maydenhead, An^o. Dni.
1620. and of his Age 66. for whome,
MARY, his only Wife, caused this Stone to be layd, and erected this Monument in the Wall, 1620.*

This mentioned Monument is set in the North Wall of the Chancel.

Under the East Window of the North Ile is a large Brass Plate fastened in the Wall, whereon is engraved the Figure of William Norris in Armour (sometime Usher of the Black Rod to the most Noble Order of Garter) over which is his Mantle, having St. George's Arms in an Escotcheon incircled with the Garter thereon. Behind him are Figures of his six Sons; before him kneels his Wife, and behind her six Daughters. Beneath this Plate, in the Wall, is also a Black Marble bearing the following Inscription.

WILLIAM NORREYS, of Fifeild, in Bray, Esquire, who was Usher of the Parliament House, and of the Noble Order of the Garter, a Gentleman Pen-cioner, Controller of the Workes of C 2 Wind-

Windsor-Castle, and Parkes there, and Keeper of Folli-John Parke, which Offices he had by the Guift of Queene
Mary, and enjoyed them during Lyfe, moft faithfully ferving his noble Soveraigne Queene Elizabeth; a Juftice of the Peace of Berkfhire; ever of honest Behaviour and good Reputation, favouring the verteous, pleafuring
many, hurting none, dyed at his Houfe of Fyfeild, 16 Aprilis, 1591. at the Age of 68 Yeares, after he had been married 43 Yeares, and had Ifsue 6 Sons and 6 Daughters, and is interred by his Ancestors, under the Stone graven with his Armes here before lying.

Moneths.*

On a lesser Grey Marble Grave-stone,
adjoyning to the last, is this Inscription.

MARY BARNES, the Daughter of RICHARD BARNES, of this Parish, Gentleman, died the 18th of Decemb. 1650.

Lower in the North Ile lyes a Gravestone, with the following Inscription on a Brass Plate.

Anno Dom. 1567. Elizabethæ Regine 10 Mense Nov. 17^o.

*Domine parvus eras, nec nomina sperne Litille:
Ingenui, atque animi pondere magnus eras.
Major eras pietate, tamen nunc dotibus audus,
Omnibus ethereo marinus orbe sedes.*

D. THOMÆ LITILLO vizio Armitigero, et Pio JO. SAR. posuit.

On

On another Plate, lower than the former, is this Inscription.

Although thou called were but Littill by thy Name,
In Witt thy Mind and Godlyness, full great yet was Yet where thou wast befoze but greate, through Ders Thou greater now, doest rest in Heaven, for ever to [in fame ;
[true sewre,
[indure.

On another Brass Plate, fixed in a Stone somewhat Westward of the former, is this Inscription.

Here, under this Marble Stone, lyeth buried the Body of CLEMENT KEIKE, Gent. who had to Wife ELIZ. Daughter to Alderman BECHER, he was borne at Bristow, and was a Citizen of London, a Merchant Venterer, and Free of the Haberdashers, being of the Age of 70 Yeares, deceased this 24th of Sept. An^o. Dni. 1593.

In a Brass Plate fixed to a Grave-stone, near the West End of the North Ile, is this Inscription.

Here lyeth buried the Body of THOMAS LAWRENCE, of Bray, in the County of Berks, who dyed the 28th of October, 1603.
On

On a Brass Plate fixed to a Grave-stone, in the Body of the Church, are the Figures of a Man and his Wife, and under them this Inscription.

Orate pro animabus Roberti Fowler, et Agnetis uxoris ejus, ac omnium fidelium defunctorum: qui quidem Robertus, obiit Die Mensis Anno Dni. Mille CCCC. Quorum animabus propicietur Deus. Amen.

Under this Epitaph are the Figures of five Sons and five Daughters.

On a Grave-stone, lying in the Body of the Church, is this Inscription.

*It was assign'd by God above,
Two Brethren which did dearly love,
Both of them at one Tyme should dye,
And both within one Grave do lye.
ROBERT and RICHARD WINCH they hight,
To Heaven their Soules have made their flight;
What greater Joy can bee than this,
From Earth to Heaven, from Bale to Bliss?*

To

To Rich ne Poore they shut no Dore, but open handed fill, Nor envious Rage in all their Age, could ever work his will.
This I dare say, well seated Bray, since first she had her be-Nurst not two such that such in Lyfe and death agree[ing,

in this Parish, who dyed 14th Sept.*

1657. Anno Ætatis 61^o.

And of ELLEN his Wife, who died 19th Sept. 1657. Anno Ætatis 59^o.

*They lived together in Wedlock
35 Yeares, and had 8 Sons and one Daughter, and were both interred here in one Grave, Sept. 20. 1657.*

Heere lye also the Bodies of WILLIAM CHERRY and THOMAS CHERRY, Sons of WILLIAM CHERRY,

fourth Son of the said Thomas and Ellen.

They were aged 4 Yeares.

On a Brass Plate in a Grave-stone, under the Feet of a Man lying between his two Wives, all three habited in the Fashion of their Times, is this Inscription.

Orate pro animabus Willielmi
Smith, Agnetis, et Matilde uxorum ejus ; qui quidem Willielmus obiit
.....
Quorum animabus propicietur Deus. Amen.

In the Body of the Church, on another Brass Plate fixed in a Grave-stone, is the following Inscription.

Orate pro anima Johannis Bird.
Cujus corpus jacet hic humatum.

MAIDEN

M A I D E N H E A D,

Or as some have falsely called it, Maidenbith, is the only Village, besides Bray, in the Hundred of that Name.

We are not ignorant that Hithe agrees to the Situation of the Place; but we have that Authority for the other Name, which ought never to be slighted.

It is of no great Antiquity. The antient Name, according to our * greatest Antiquary, was South Alington, which Stow has contracted into Sudlington. But it took the Name of Maidenhead, according to the same Author, from the Head of one of those Eleven Thousand Virgins, said to have suffer'd Martyrdom with St. Ursula, which was had here in very great Veneration. This is the true Original of the Name, and this Opinion the World then had of the great Numbers that accompanied St. Ursula in her Death.

But the true Foundation of this Story having been discover'd, we shall take this Opportunity of acquainting the Reader with it. It will deserve the more credit, because it comes from a Roman Catholic Writer, and he too one of the greatest of his * Order. In a very antient MS. Martyrology, older than the general Ignorance of the Monks, he tells us he met with the following Words: Ursula & Undecimilla, VV. MM. i. e. Ursula and Undecimilla, Virgins and Martyrs. This Undecimilla, the Name of one Virgin only, came afterwards through Ignorance to be changed by the Monks into Undecim mille, i. e. Eleven Thousand, which by degrees came generally to prevail.

* Leland's Itinerary, Vol. II. p. 3.

About two Miles above the Town Northward, there was formerly a Ferry at a Place called Babham-End; so that 'twas not till after a Bridge was built at Maidenhead, and the Road brought that Way, that the Place began to flourish.

Leland says, at the West End of the Bridge, in his Time, was a great Wharfrage of Timber and Fire Wood, which came out of Berkshire, out of the Woods of the Forest of Windsor, and out of the great Fryth.

This Town was first incorporated by the Name of the Fraternity or Guild of the Brothers and Sisters of Madenbeith, in the 26th of Edward III. and John Husbands, Citizen and Blader of London, bequeathed 100 l. in Money to obtain a certain Revenue, sufficient for a Chanter to one Chapel, which was dedicated to St. Andrew the Apostle, and St. Mary Magdalen. In consideration of this 100 l. the Prior and Convent of Hurley obliged themselves to find one Chaplain for the said Chapel.

* Sirmondus the Jesuit.

In the 30th of Henry VI. the Patent-Roll, dated Dec. 20. recites this Grant, and confirms it with the Addition of several new Privileges. Tho. Mattyngham was constituted the first Chaplain.

After the Reformation it was incorporated by the Name of Warden and Burgesses, and it continued so till the Reign of King James II. who granted them a new Charter, and incorporated them by the Name of Mayor and Aldermen, with Liberty to chuse a High-Steward and a Steward. So that their present Constitution is a High Steward, a Mayor, a Steward, and ten Aldermen : Out of these last mention'd they chuse two Bridge-masters every Year. The Mayor, the Steward, and the Mayor for the Year preceding, are Justices of the Peace. The Mayor is Clerk of the Market, and Coroner ;

ner: He is likewise Judge of the Court, which he is obliged to hold once in three Weeks, and oftner, by Adjournment. The Mayor and Aldermen chuse two Serjeants yearly, who bear the Mace. They have a Goal within the Corporation, not only for Debtors, but also to secure such Felons as shall happen to be taken there. The Mayor holds a Session twice a Year, and, in Conjunction with the Aldermen, has Power of making By-Laws for the Good of the Corporation.

They have a very good Market here every Wednesday, and three Fairs in the Year; on Wednesday in Whitsun Week, on St. Mary Magdalen's Day, i. e. 22d of July, and on that of St. Thomas the Apostle.

The Revenue of the Corporation is but small, consisting chiefly of the Toll of the Market, the Toll of the Bridge, and three or four small Tenements.

The Town is situated in two Parishes, part of it in Bray, and part in Cookham, though they have a Chapel peculiar to the Corporation, founded by Mr. John Husbands. The Minister is chosen by the Inhabitants in a Common Hall, called for that purpose. He is not obliged to attend the Bishop's Vilitation. His Income is by Subscription, saving 14 Nobles from the Crown, in Consideration of the 100 l. above-mentioned, which was paid into the Exchequer at the Dissolution of Monasteries, a good House, Garden and Orchard, a Close called Little Eastmore-Hill, given him by one Mr. Townsend, of Staple-Inn, and a small Slip of Meadow, lying in Foreleys, given by the Founder Mr. John Husbands.

James Smith, Esq; Citizen and Salter of London, in the Year 1659. erected an Alms-house in that Part of the Town which is in Cookham Parish, and endowed it with 40 l. a Year. It consists of eight Houses for eight poor Men and their Wives, so that every House has yearly 5 l. and every Person a new Gown once in two Years. To this Benefaction of her Husband's, Mrs. Smith, his Widow, gave 8 l. a Year more to the said Hospital, i. e. 1 l. to every House to buy them Wood. The Salter's Company are the Trustees of this Charity.

Mr. Smith left also 5 l. 4 s. a Year to be distributed in Bread, 2 s. every Sunday to the Poor of Maidenhead, on Cookham Side, and to the Poor of the same Parish at large.

He gave also the Minister of Maidenhead, 1 l. a Year for preaching a Sermon on Charity every New Year's Day, and as much much to the Minister of Cookham for preaching another on Easter Monday, and administring the Sacrament to the poor Alms-People.

He order'd besides to be paid yearly,

On a small Stone over the Alms-House, in Capitals, is this Inscription.

*These Alms-Houses were erected, and built at the sole and proper Cost and Charges of James Smyth, * Esquior, Citizen and Salter of London, in the Year of our Lord, 1659.*

Mr. Ralph Pool gave 10 l. a Year, issuing out of his House called Munkendons, for the Poor of Maidenhead, to be distributed in Bread, 4 s. every Sunday.

* Sic. Orig.

Mrs. Poole settled a Farm of about 14 l. a Year to buy Cloth to clothe the Poor of Maidenhead yearly, by Trustees chosen within the Corporation.

One Ring, a Taylor, gave a Tenement worth about 8 l. a Year, to be distributed yearly among such poor House-keepers as receive no Alms within the Corporation.

Mr. Rixmand gave a Tenement of 9 l. a Year to put out poor Boys Apprentices.

Mrs. Merrywid gave 5 l. a Year, to issue out of her Houses in Maidenhead, to teach five poor Boys to read and write.

Four Pounds a Year was given for the same purpose by Mr. Abraham Spoor, and another Sum to put out Apprentices : But his Gift is not for above 20 Years to come.

The Bridge is maintained by the Corporation, for which they have the Tolls allow'd them both over and under the Bridge ; to which may be added three Trees given by the Crown yearly out of the Forest of Windsor, towards repairing the same.

The Barge-Pier divides the two Counties of Buckingham and Berks.

About the middle of the Town stands the small Chapel before-mentioned, wherein is only the following Inscription, on a Black

Black Marble Grave-stone, in the middle Ile, in Capitals.

NEW WINDSOR,

Has the Addition of the Term New,
to distinguish it from the last mentioned Place (out of whose Ruins it rose) and lyes at the East End of this County, and is divided by the River Thames (which washes the lowest Parts of this Place) from Eton in Buckinghamshire. It is a Vicarage situate in Ripplesmore Hundred, in the Patronage of the King. Of this Place
we have no Account before the Saxon Times, when it was called Windleshore, from its winding Banks on the River.
It was by Edward the Confessor bestowed on Westminster-Abbey, in whose Possession it remained but a short Time, being transferred to Will. the Conqueror, in Exchange for other Lands elsewhere, by the Abbot
and

and Monks of that Convent. This Place was made a Free Borough, and had a Charter of great Privileges granted to it by King Edw. I. 1276. from which Time it has been gradually encreasing in building, &c. Much is said of this Place in Brady's History of Boroughs, pag. 38, and 84. and in Bohun's Debates in Parliament, pag. 332, and 333. where is the following Charter, copied from the 141st. Page of the XXVth Volume of the laborious Mr. Dodsworth's Collections, among the * MSS. of the Bodleian Library in Oxford.

the Antiquities of England, particularly those of the County of Bucks, Browne Willis, of Whaddon Hall, Esq; This Town consists of several Streets, many of which lye near the Castle: The High Street, and largest, lyes Southward, where in 1380. 4 Ric. II. was erected a handsom Cross by John Sadler, which was much beautified and repaired, and a Crucifix placed on its Top in 1635. by Godfrey Goodman, Bishop of Gloucester, which, as I have seen in Letters to, and from the said Prelate, gave great Offence to some of the purer Saints of those Times, by whose Endeavours, I presume, it was demplished in the most impious Rebellion, begun 1641. there being now not the smallest Vestigia of its Existence. In this Street stands a fair Market-House, or Guild-Hall, on Pillars, erected in the Time of King Charles II. at the North End of which is a Statue, vested in her Royal Robes, of the late Queen Anne, with a Scepter in her right Hand, and a Globe in her left, and under her Feet this Distich, made by William Piesley, Esq; Counsellor at Law, of the Middle Temple, in London, late Under Steward of this Town, and Castle adjoining, in Gold Capitals, at the Charge of this Corporation.

Her Heart in Christ was firmly bent, her faith was settled pure,
 And oft from her these Speeches went, as Lyfe might ther endure.
 O Lord, said she, for Christ's sake, forgive me all my Sinner,
 And give me Grace with perfect faith, so to continue in.
 My Soule to thee I do commend, my Body to the Ground,
 My Hope and Trust is in the Lord, where Mercies may be found, whose Lyfe and Conversation her Neighbour's witness be,
 who for the lack and miss of her do weep and mourne with me.
 what stony Heart can be so hard, to hyde within the Ground,
 The Name and fame of such a wise, as rare is to be found?
 So christianly did lead her Lyfe, so patiently to beare
 Such Trials as the Lord did send, to dye so in his feare, Eternal Bliss, with Christ in Heaben, her Soule is for to have;
 Deserbed fame will here remain, though Body be in Grave.

On a Desk at the East End of the North Chancel, lyes a Vellum Book in Folio, containing an Account of the Benefactors and Benefactions to this Church, from which take the following Abstract.

WILLIAM EVINGTON, of New Windsor, Esq; by his Will dated Mar. 4. 1487. gave to the Vicar; the Vicaridge House over against the Church.

Feb. 15. 1503. JOHN TOMPSON, and WILLIAM HUNTRED, Chaplains, and JOHN COMB, Gent. by a Deed gave to the Corporation of New Windsor, 4 Tenements in Sheer-Street, that they might elect poor Persons, Men or Women, to inhabit in them. These People are said only to have been Feoffees in Trust from William Paynell, and Thomas Hunt, who are judged the true Benefactors.

THOMAS BROTHERTON, alias HUNT, by a Deed bearing Date 25 Aug. 1510. for the Support of 4 Alms-Houses in Sheer-street, gave 14 Acres of Pasture and Wood Ground, called Butter-Stoakes; 3 Acres and a half of Arable Land in Church Field; 2 Acres of Wood Ground call'd Scott's Grove; one Acre of Arable in a Field called Pidwell; and one Parcel of Meadow lying at Stakes; all the Lands in the Parish of Warfield in Berkshire, valued at 10 l. per Annum; two Acres of Land in Warfield Common Field, called Ferris Hill, at the yearly Rent of Two Shillings per Annum.

THO-

THOMAS JENKINSON, of New Windsor, Gent. by his last Will made about the Year 1596. gave 5 Acres and an half of Land in the Parish of Rushcombe in Berkshire, called East Mead and the Eight, that the Profits should be distributed to such of the poor Inhabitants of this Place, as shall be approved of by the Vicar, and eldest Alderman of this Corporation.

THOMAS NEEDHAM, of this Place, Gent. by his last Will, dated Aug. 1. 1603. gave to the Vicar and Church-Wardens, and to their Successors for ever, 3 Houses in New Windsor; two near the Church-Gate, and one in Pescod-street, the Rents of which are to be disposed of on each Sunday to Twelve poor People of the Parish, not of the Alms-House.

THOMAS ALDEM, of this Place, Gent. by a Deed dated 23 May, 1604. gave a Close of Pasture Ground, near Puttock's Gate, in this Parish, to build Pest Houses.

WILLIAM DAY, Son of Matthew Day, Alderman of this Town, gave a House and Garden in Pescod-street, by a Deed dated 16 Aug. 1664, the Rent of which was to be distributed to such of the poor Inhabitants, as the Vicar and the three eldest Aldermen shall approve of.

The aforesaid William Day did by another Deed dated 28 July, 1668. give 4 Acres

Acres of Meadow Ground lying in Meadbay, in the Parish of Langley, in Buckinghamshire, for the same Uses, to be distributed by the Mayor, three eldest Aldermen, and Chamberlain of the Town for the Time being.

RICHARD GALLIS, of this Place, Gent. gave by Indenture, dated 30 July, 1666. a Legacy to this Corporation, with which was bought Munday Close, lying between Woodbridge-lane, and Moat-Park, in this Parish, the Revenues of which he assigned to the Support of the 4 Alms-Houses.

This Parish bought of Francis Ridley, of Windsor-Castle, Esq; for 36 Pounds, by Indenture dated 20 May, 1673. one Acre, and one Rood and an half of Meadow lying in Meadbay, in the Parish of Langley March, in Bucks, the Profits to be applied to the Use of the Poor of New Windsor.

Arch-Bishop LAUD, by his last Will, gave 50 per Annum to Apprentice poor Boys, and for marrying of poor Maidens in this Parish, which was settled by a Deed dated 2 Octob. 1672. by Sir John Robinson, Bar. and the other Executors.

Dr. CHALLONER, Rector of Agmondesham, in Buckinghamshire, by his Will about 1621. gave, after the Decease of Christian his Wife, an Annuity of 6 Pounds out of his Estate in East Oakley, Fifeild

Fifeild and Bray, to be distributed half yearly to Twelve of the godliest Poor of this Parish, to be chosen and changed yearly by the Dean of Windsor, Mayor and Minister of the same Town. This commenced 25 Mar. 1637.

JANE BALDWIN, of Hillington, in Buckinghamshire, Widdow, for 60 Years, from 1671. gave 4 Acres and a half of Arable Land in Meadfield, in the Parish of Langley, in Buckinghamshire, the Rent of which, Two Pounds Twelve Shillings, is appropriated to the Use of the Poor of this Parish.

RICHARD REEVE, of Dagnall, in Buckinghamshire, Gent. by a Deed dated 11 October, 1676. gave to this Corporation a Close of Pasture Ground in the Parish of Wingfeild, in this County, five Acres of Land, the Rents of which are to be distributed by the Mayor, 4 senior Aldermen, senior Church-Warden, and senior Overseer, who are to nominate 50 poor People who receive no other Charity, to be paid yearly, on Jan. 12. and July 12. one Shilling in Bread, all to continue during their Lives, and their Vacancies to be supplied by the aforesaid Trustees.

The same Gentleman, by a Deed dated Aug. 20. 1688. gave four Brick Tenements, or Alms-Houses, near the Pitts-fields, fields, with the Gardens, for the Use of Four poor Women during their Lives (except removed for any heinous Crimes) to be elected by the Mayor, two senior Aldermen, Chamberlain, Vicar, and two senior Church-Wardens, within two Months after any Vacancy; and upon their Default, the Election to lapse to the Dean and Canons of Windsor. The Persons to be elected are to be upwards of 50 Years of Age, Members of the Establish'd Church of England, and not to Marry after their Election, upon Pain of Expulsion.

The same Gentleman, by his last Will, dated 9 Decemb. 1688. gave 200 Pounds to purchase Lands for the Support of the Alms-Houses, and 100 Pounds towards finishing of the New Market-House here.

KATHERINE CAREY, late Wife of John Carey, of Stanwell, in Middlesex, Esq; by a Deed dated Aug. 1. 1673. gave 100 Pounds to be distributed to 6 poor Widows, at the Discretion of John Carey, and Giles Gent, Esqs; John Carey, by a Deed dated Dec. 20. 1679. also charged an Annuity of 6 Pounds per Annum, for ever, on the Catherine Wheel in Colebrook, to be applied to the same Uses. The Election of the Widows to be in the Mayor and Burgessees, in a Common Hall held for that end.

WILLIAM GALLAND, late of New Windsor, Gent. by his last Will dated 13 April, 1693. gave 3 Pounds per Annum, out of a House called the Three Tuns there, to be pay'd at two half yearly Payments, and laid out in Bread for the Poor, at the discretion of the Mayor, 3 senior Aldermen, the Church-Wardens and Overseers of the Poor.

It appears by a Decree of the Commissioners for charitable Uses, held in the Vestry of the Parish Church of Clewar, April 6. An. Reg. Jac. I. 7^o That the Commissioners decreed one John Phippes, Owner of a Tenement in More-street, and of a Tenement and 4 Acres of Land at Clewar, his Heirs, Executors, &c. should stand chargeable with the following Payments, viz. 10 s. to be pay'd quarterly to the Poor of New Windsor; Six Shillings to the two poorest Couples that shall be married within the Year, and 3 s. and 4 d. to the Church, payable at Easter, which several Sums were decreed to be in full of the Benefactions design'd by the last Will of Henry Franklin, made Anno 17 Reginæ Eliz.

It appears by the Copy of a Deed kept in this Vestry, dated 16 July, 8 Jac. I. that there is issuing out of a House next joyning to the Pest-House, the annual Rent of of 3 s. 4 d. to the Poor, which seems to have been the Gift of William Lorde, of this Place Smith.

Mrs. MARGARET OSBOURNE, by her last Will, gave 25 Pounds towards the Founding of a Stock of Corn and Coles for the Poor of this Parish.

ANDREW WINDSOR, late of Bentley, in Hampshire, Esq; by his last Will, 2 Aug. 1653. gave 200 Pounds towards founding a Stock to employ the Poor in the Clothing Manufacture, with which a Rent Charge of 14 Pounds per Annum, payable out of Windsor-Mill, which being sold to Queen Anne, in lieu of it a like Rent Charge was settled by a Deed dated 24 June, 1705. payable out of the Butcher's Shambles in the Market Place of this Town.

Doctor John Heaver, late Vicar of this Town, Prebendary of the Church of Windsor, and Fellow of Eton College, gave 100 Pounds, the Interest of it to be applied to the Apprenticing poor Boys in the Parishes of Eton, and Windsor.

WILLIAM CHILD, Mus. Dr. late of Windsor Castle, gave 50 Pounds to this Corporation, for such charitable Uses as the Mayor, &c. shall think fit; with which they have settled an annual Charge of 5 Pounds towards binding one poor Boy Apprentice.

HENRY LUCAS, late of London, Esq; founded an Hospital at Wokingham in Berkshire, for 16 poor Brethren, 9 of which are to be Natives of Berkshire, and elected by the following Parishes, each in their turn, Wokingham Parish, Arberfield, Wokingham Town, Finchamstead, New Windsor, Easthamstead, Clewar, Old Windsor, Barkham, Binfeild, Hurst, Bray, Sandhurst, Winckfeild, Swallowfeild, and Sunninghill.

Mrs. MARY BARKER, late of London, Widow, by her last Will, dated 21 Nov. 1704. gave 300 Pounds, to purchase Lands within 10 Miles of this Place, for the Support of a School-Master and School-Mistress in New Windsor, and in the Tything of Inglefield, in the Parish of Egham in Surrey, and in Tately in Hampshire, towards teaching of the poor Children of the said Parish to Read and Work.

Mrs. ELIZ. METCALFE, by her Will dated 14 Octob. 1709. late of Isleworth in Middlesex, Widow, gave 80 Pounds, the Interest of which is to be given to 4 poor House-Keepers not receiving Alms, 2 to be elected by the Vicar, and 2 by the Overseers, and to be pay'd half yearly.

JOHN CLARK, late Mayor of this Town, by his Will dated 27 Decemb. 1710. gave 60 Pounds towards building a Charity

rity School in the Church-yard, or elsewhere, as the Trustees shall think fit. And by a Codicil dated 4 Feb. 1748. 50 Shillings more was charged on his Dwelling House in New Windsor, to be pay'd Eight Days after Shrove Tuesday, to Twenty poor House-Keepers not receiving Alms, at the discretion of the Minister and Church-Wardens for the Time being.

This Town has a weekly Market, on every Saturday, and 3 Fairs, on June 24. Octob. 16. and on Easter Tuesday. The Manor of this Borough was Lett in Lease by King James I. 1602. to this Corporation, to pay annually to the Crown a Quit-Rent of Four Pounds, Four Shillings and Five Pence.

WINDSOR CASTLE.

In my Account of New Windsor, Page 56, I mentioned that the Manor of this Place came into the Possession of the Crown by an Exchange at the Conquest, when also a Castle was built here, which Domes-Day Book tells us contained half a Hide of Land, in these Words, — Terra Radulphi, filii Seifridi, Radulfus filius Seifridi, tenet de Rege Clivore, pro quinque Hidis, modo

modo pro quatuor Hidis et dimid. Castellum de Wyndesores est in dimidia Hida. This Castle King Henry I. re-edified and enlarged, and kept his Whitfontide here in 1109. where all his Nobles attended him. Shortly after, in a Treaty of Peace concluded between the Usurper Stephen and King Henry II. this was termed Mota de Windesore. When King Richard I. went into the Holy Land, and had delegated an equal Authority to the Bishops of Ely and Durham; the first of whom taking Possession of the Tower of London, the last retired hither as the second Fortrefs of this Nation. Queen Eleanor, Consort to King Edward I. took much delight here, and here she bore some of her Children: In the Reign of her Son Edward II. his Queen was delivered here of Edward of Windfore, well known afterwards to France and Scotland, by the Name of Edward III. To him this Place owes most of its present Magnificence; here he employed Workmen for many Years, under the direction of the famous William of Wickham, afterwards Bishop of Winchester: He seems to have began this in 1348. And though Writs were issued out to the Sheriffs of several Counties to impress Labourers, &c. into the Service, yet the Buildings were scarce ready for Glasing in 1355; nor was it finish'd till 1368. In future
Kings

Kings Reigns Additions were made, as the Fabrick adjoining to the King's Lodgings, in the upper Ward by King Henry VII.

In the Windows of King Henry VIIth's Closet are these Coats of Arms.

I. A Portcullis.

II. A White Rose within a Red, the first the Badge of the true Heirs to the Crown, viz. the House of York, the other that of Lancaster.

III. A Red Rose.

Over the Chimney, in the Gallery, are,

A Lion, a Dragon, an Antelope, a Bull, a Hart, a Faulcon crowned, standing on the Root of a Rose Tree, with Roses budding out of it.

The new great Gate, at the entrance of the lower Ward, was built by King Henry VIII. other Additions were made by King Edward VI. and his Sister Queen Mary erected a curious Fountain in the middle of the inner Court, into which Water was conveyed from Blackmore Park, near Winkfield, which served the whole Castle. Queen Elizabeth made the Terrace Walk on the North Side, all faced with Free-stone, from whence is a delightful Prospect down upon Eton College, the Thames, and the neighbouring Country.

Over

Over the Door of the Chapel, in the King's Lodge, is this Inscription.

This Chapel was built, 1571. E. R. *

King Charles I. An. 1636. built the Gate at the East End of the Terrace, with the Draw Bridge leading into the Park. But during the Time of the long Rebellion, the Buildings, &c. run much to Ruin, which were at a vast Expence at the Restoration repaired, beautified, and a handsome Magazine of Arms placed here by King Charles II. The Lodgings were much improved in Painting, Magnificence, Beauty and Convenience by King James II. and William III. so that now they not only rival, but are accounted by impartial Judges, Foreigners as well as Natives, superior to the so much exalted Palace of Versailles. The Situation of this Place is so very fine, and worthy Observation, that Sir John Denham, in his Cooper's Hill, has celebrated it in the following manner.

* Queen Elizabeth.

Windsor, the next (where Mars with Venus Beauty with Strength) above the Valley swells

 Into my Eye, and doth it self present
 With such an easy and unforc'd Ascent,
 That no stupendous Precipice denies Access, no Horror turns away our Eyes :
 But such a Rise as do's at once invite,
 A Pleasure and a Rev'rence from the Sight.
 Thy mighty Master's Emblem, in whose Face
 Sate Meekness, heighten'd with Majestick

 Such seems the gentle Height, made only proud
 To be the Basis of that pompous Load,
 Than which a nobler Weight no Mountain

 But Atlas only that supports the Spheres.

This Description is given us in polite
 Verse by Mr. Pope, in his Windsor Forest, Lond. 1713. Fol. pag. 13.

This Castle consists of two square Courts, with a Tower betwixt them, which are also called three Wards. The higher Ward is call'd the inner Square or Court,
 the

the middle Ward the Tower, and the lower Ward the outer Square. In the inner Square, toward the East, is the Royal Palace, and in the Middle of the Square is a very fine Statue of King Charles II. on Horseback, erected in the Year 1680. On the Park-side of the Square, to the North, are the Royal Apartments, with those of the Officers of the Household. The rest of the Square composes the Apartments of the Officers of the Crown. The Entrance to the Royal Apartment is through a Vestibulo, supported by Pillars, with some antick Bustoes in the Niches; from whence you ascend the great Stairs to these Apartments on one Side; and on the Right Side of the Vestibulo, through a little Court, up another Pair of Stairs to St. George's Hall on the other Side. The Domes of these Stair-Cases are painted. From each of these Stairs you pass into a Guard-Hall, which is finely embellished with several Sorts of Arms, artfully disposed into Figures, as at the Tower of London. In the Cieling is Britannia on a Globe, the Indies offering her Riches, and Europe a Crown; all surrounded with a Circle in Form of a Snake. Above the Chimney of one of these Halls is the Picture of Prince George of Denmark on Horseback, excellently done by Mr. Dahl; and that of the late

King of Sweden over that of the other, In the Presence Chamber, over the Chimney, is Judith and Holofernes, an admirable Piece; and over the Door St. Mary Magdalen, masterly done. There is another Magdalen, an Original, in the Privy Chamber; and another Judith over the Door. In the Gallery, over the Door, is the Roman Daughter giving Suck to her Father in Prison. In the Bed Chamber is another Judith over the Closet-Door, and the Innocents over that of the Chamber. In the Cieling of the Closet the Story of Leda and the Swan is wonderfully performed. In the Dining Room all Sorts of Fish and Poultry, and Fruit are very naturally represented; and in the Gallery there is a Picture much taken notice of for the Liveliness of the Light of a Candle, by which an old Woman is seen reading. In the Room of Audience, over the Chimney, is her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange, Mother to King William; and the Dutches of Richmond, with this Inscription; ——— Numero Deus impare gaudet. In the Cieling is King Charles II. supported by Peace and Victory. In short, every Apartment that composes this Palace is spacious and noble: The Canopies of State, under which the late Queen gave Audience, are as rich as Embroidery can can make them; and the Pictures in the Closet, and little Gallery, with that of English Beauties, are worth a Stranger's coming to England on purpose to see.

From that Guard-Room, where we said before was a Picture of the late King of Sweden, we pass into St. George's Hall, the finest Room in the World. This Hall is very large and long, and designed from the first Institution for the Entertainment of the Knights of the Garter at their Installation; and the Sovereign us'd to give a Feast to his Twenty Five Knights Companions every St. George's Day. But this latter Custom has not been observed since the Reign of King Charles II. who made the last Feast of that kind at the Installation of the present Duke of Buckingham, then Earl of Mulgrave.

On one Side of the Hall is painted King Edward III. sitting on a Throne, receiving his triumphant Son Edward the Black Prince, with the Kings of France and Scotland Prisoners, full as big as the Life. To this Story Sir John Denham alludes in the following Lines, where he takes particular Notice.

Of Thee, great Edward, and thy greater (Son,
 (The Lilies which his Father wore, he won)
 And

*And thy * Bellona, who thy Consort came
Not only to thy Bed, but to thy Fame;
She to thy Triumph led one † captive King,
And brought that ‖ Son which did the § Other (bring.*

Thus translated by Mr. Pengry, pag. 5.

*— Tacuisse nefas Te magne Edoarde, tuumque
Te Patre majorem natum, qui Lilia carpsit
Victrici dextra, atque Tibi gestanda ferebat;
Bellonamquè Tuæ sociam famaque sorique,
Uno quæ capto peperit Tibi Rege triumphos Atque Illum peperit, cui Captus paruit Alter.*

On the Cieling are painted the Triumphs of King Charles II. over Faction, Rebellion, and Sedition, where the Painter has put the Picture of the Earl of Shaftesbury, Lord Chancellor in that Reign, representing Sedition with Libels in his Hand, a Man, who served all Times and Parties, according to his Interest, and was named as one of the King's Judges, though he had the Wit not openly to appear. At the upper End of the Hall is the

* Queen Philippa.

† David King of Scotland.

‖ The Black Prince.

§ John King of France.

Picture of King William III. seated on a Throne, ten Steps high, five of which only are painted; and above this St. George killing the Dragon.

From the Hall you pass into the Chapel-Royal, under an artificial Curtain supported by 4 Statues larger than the Life, which is pav'd with Marble, like the Hall, and admirably painted with some Histories of the New Testament. The Altar-Piece is the last Supper, and on the Cieling is a noble Ascension. All which excellent Pieces of Painting were performed by the masterly Hand of Signior Verrio a Neapolitan.

In passing from the inner Court to the outer, you go by the Tower above-mentioned, which is the Habitation of the Constable or Governor. It is built after the Manner of an Amphi-Theatre, very high, and very magnificent; and the Apartments are suitable to the Character of the Office, very noble. On the Top of the Tower the Standard is erected, as often as the Court, or Constable is at Windsor. King Charles II. had a Design of facing the Hill it stands on with Brick; but that Project was never finished.

The lower Court is much larger, and equally broad with the upper. Here formerly stood a Chapel built by King Henry I.
and

and dedicated to King Edward the Confessor: This was demolished by King Edward III. who raised another Pile, which he dedicated to St. George: But King Edward IV. (whose Inclination to, and Kindness to this Place was very extraordinary) finding, upon a Survey, that this Chapel was very much decayed, and not thinking the Building large or stately enough, he resolved upon raising the present noble Edifice; for this purpose he constituted Richard Beauchamp, Bishop of Sarum, Master and Surveyor of the Works, to whom he also gave a plenary Power of removing several irregular Buildings, or Offices, which might be Obstacles, particularly some antient Buildings on the East Side of the Chapel, which reached unto the Walls of the North Side of the Castle, where the Towers, commonly called Clure ys Tower, and Le Amener ys Tower, and Barner ys Tower were situated; as also on the South Side of the Chapel unto the Belfrey.

This elegant and beautiful Gothick Structure, by the Diligence of the good Bishop, was soon raised and enlarged, in length, at least, One Hundred Fathom, in 1474. though it attained to its present Beauty and Perfection not till the Reign of King Henry VIII. In the Reign of King Henry VII. Sir Reginald Bray, (one of the Knights of the noble Order of the Garter) became a liberal Benefactor to the finishing of the Body of this Chapel, and building the middle Chapel on the South Side of it, still called by his Name (where his Body lyes interred) as it is manifest not only from his last Will, but also from his Coat of Armour, Crest, and the Initial Letters of his Christian and Surname, cut in Stone in several Parts of the Roof.
of

By an Indenture dated June 5. 1508. John Hylmer and William Vertue, Free Masons, undertook the Vaulting of the Roof of the Choir (that curious and excellent Piece of Architecture) for 700 Pounds, and to finish it by Christmas 1508. The Rood Loft and Lanthorn were erected by the Contributions of the Knights Companions of the Garter in 1516.

Within this Chapel of St. George have been several Chantries founded, and endowed with Lands and other Revenues, appointed for the Maintenance of Chaplains and Priests to sing Masses there for the Souls of their Founders, and their Kindred, of which Mr. Ashmole's printed History, as well as MS. (from whom we must borrow much concerning this Chapel, College, and its several Endowments) gives us the following Account, viz.

1. " William of Wickham, Bishop of " Winchester, gave 200 Marks for buying
 " 20 Marks Rent per Annum to maintain
 " a Chaplain to celebrate Mass in this
 " Chapel for the Health of his Soul ; the

 " Successors should cause yearly for ever,
 " a Mass to be daily celebrated in this
 " Chapel, for the good Estate of the said
 " Duke, and of Anne his Dutchess, while
 " they lived, and their Souls when dead ;
 " as also for the Souls of their Parents and " Benefactors.
 " Sir Thomas St. Leger, Kt. (sometime
 " Husband to Anne Dutchess of Exeter,
 " Sister to King Edward the Fourth)
 " founded a Chantry of two Priests,
 " who

" who (in the middle Chapel, situate on
 " the North Side of the Church) were or" dained to pray for the healthful Estate
 " of King Edward the Fourth, and his " Queen, and Cicely, dead ; as also for the " Soul of Richard Duke of York, the good
 " Estate of the said Sir Thomas, and Ri-

 " and after their decease, for their Souls,
 " and the Soul of Anne Dutcheſs of Exeter.
 " The Foundation of this Chantry, and
 " the Covenants between Sir Thomas St.
 " Leger, and the Dean and College, are " dated the 20 of April, Anno 22 Ed. IV.
 " (1481.)

" By the last Will of King Edward the " Fourth, a Chantry was ordained to be " founded of two Priests to ſerve at his
 " Tomb, to whom was appointed an Ex" hibition of Twenty Marks yearly a" piece. They were called King Edward's
 " Chantry Priests.

" The Chantry of Thomas Paſſche (one
 " of the Canons of this Chapel) was found" ed for a Priest to pray daily for his Soul,
 " and the Soul of William Hermer (ano" ther of the Canons there) as also for the
 " good Estate of Maſter John Arundel,
 " and Maſter John Seymer, Canons, and
 " of Maſter Thomas Brotherton, and their " Souls, after they ſhould depart this Life.

" There was another Chantry Priest
 " assigned to pray for the Souls of the said
 " Passche and Hermer, and of John Plu-
 " mer, Verger of the Chapel, and Agatha
 " his Wife; which Devotion was appoint" ed to be perform'd at the Altar on the " North Side of the new Church, and
 " the Settlement thereof bears date the
 " 18 of March, Anno 9 Hen. VII. (1493.)

" The first of March, Anno 12 Hen. VII.
 " (1496.) Margaret Countess of Rich-
 " mond, obtained Licence from the King,
 " that she or her Executors might found a
 " Chantry of four Chaplains to pray for " her Soul, the Souls of her Parents and
 " Ancestors, and all faithful Souls depart" ed. This Celebration was to be per" formed in a Place near the East Part of " the new Work of the Chapel. And the
 " 18 of July, Anno 13 Hen. VIII. (1497.)
 " the Dean and Canons granted, That
 " the Countess, or her Executors, should " erect such a Chantry in the Chapel, as
 " is beforementioned.

" The Chantry of William Lord Ha- " stings, founded for one Priest to pray for
 " his Soul, the Souls of the Lady Cathe-
 " rine his Widow, and of Edward Lord
 " Hastings his Son, and Mary his Wife,
 " after their Death. The Chapel where-
 " in this Service was celebrated, is that
 " on

“ on the North Side of the Choir, about
 “ the middle thereof, where the Body of “ this Lord lyes interred. The Ordinati“ on is dated the 21 of February, Anno 18
 “ Hen. VII. (1502.)

“ Charles Somerset, Lord Herbert, (crea“ ted afterwards Earl of Worcester) was “ buried in the South Chapel (dedicated “ to the Virgin Mary) at the West End of “ the Church, where he ordained a Secu“ lar Priest to say Mass every Day, and “ to pray for the Souls of him and his

During the great Rebellion this Churches Fate was very deplorable, and her inſide was very much abuſed by the Saints of thoſe Times, who had a Garrifon here;
the Organs and Windows being alſo defaced on 6 September, 1643.

In this Church are the following Monuments, viz.

In the Eaſt Ile, behind the High Altar, on a Marble Grave-ſtone, whereon is fixed a Braſs Plate, having the Figure of an Eccleſiaſtick in his Habit, over which is his Robe, with an Eſcotcheon of St. George on his left Shoulder, is this Inſcription.

On another Grave-stone, in the middle of the said Ile, from whence the Figure in Brass is torn away, is this Inscription.

Here under this Stone lyeth John Bockle, Preeste, Maister of Arte, Batchelour of Divinitee, who at the Tyme of his Death was one of the secular Canons of Wynde-fore, and in his former Lyfe time was Pryor of the Regular Chanons of the dissolved Monastery of Merton in the County of Surrey, who dyed the 15th of Aug^r 1559.

In the Ile on the South Side of the Choir^r within an Arch made in the Wall, near the East End, is this Inscription.

At the South Eaſt End of this Ile is a Chapel, wherein ſtands a fair Alabaſter Monument; on the Top is a Man proſtrate, his Feet on a Grey Hound collar'd and chain'd, and by him a Woman, whoſe Feet ſtand on a Monkey collar'd: At the Head are the Statues of 2 Daughters, and on one Side 5 Daughters more; on the other Side 3 Sons, with a Head Piece between them. On the Sides is this Inſcription.

Nobilissimo Domino Edovardo Finio, Lincolnia Comiti, Clintonia et Saia Baroni, inclyti ordinis Periscelidis Militi, et summo Angliae Admirallo, cum, post praeclaram operam quatuor (continua serie) Illustrissimis Principibus, Henrico, Edovardo, Mariae, et Elizabethae tam consilio, quam armis, et domi et foris terra Mariq; fideliter navatam, placide fato functus esset, charissimo marito amantissima conjux Elizabetha, Comitis Kildariensis filia, pia perpetuaeque memoria ergo marens posuit. Obiit 16 Die Januarii, 1584.

Near the East Window of this Ile hang the Helmet and Crest of . . . Bowyer, Esq; sometime Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

Under the 4th Arch, on the Side of the Choir, lyes a Plate of Brass on a Grave-stone, and on it is the Figure of a Priest in a Canons Mantle, with St. George's Arms on his left Shoulder.

On another Grave-stone, adjoyning, is this Inscription.

Within the 6th Arch is a little Chantry Chapel erected, called Oxenbridge's Chapel, mentioned pag. 126. On the top of the Door is a Lion Rampant with many Escallops round him, and the Rebus of the Founder's Name, viz. an Ox, the Letter N, and a Bridge with Water running under it. Within is painted the History of St. John Baptist preaching in the Wilderness, his Head delivered to the Damsel, and the Damsel presenting it to Herod. As also a Priest kneeling, having over his Surplice a Red Mantle lin'd with Green, and underneath the aforesaid Arms this Date, 1522.

On a Marble Grave-stone, lying over against this Chapel, is this Inscription.

Here lyeth the Body of Mrs. Susanna Parrye, the late Wife of Hugh Parrye, Gent. who departed this Life the 20th

of Feb. Ann. 1656.

Ætatis sue, 27.

Under the 4th Arch is painted on large Panes of Wood these Figures.

I. Of Prince Edward, Son to King Henry the 6th, having a Prince's Cap on his Head, a Gold Verge in his Hand, and vested in a Robe lin'd with Ermin, under his Feet this Inscription.

Primogenitus Henrici VI.

This Nich is diapred with Swans and Ostrich Feathers, and over him are France and England, quarterly, a Label Argent, and are supported on the right Side with an Antelope Argent, attired, Or, accolled with a Ducal Coronet, and chained Or, and on the left with a Swan proper, gorged also with a Coronet proper, and chained, Or.

II. Of King Edward the 4th, crown'd, and in his Robes, holding a Scepter and a Globe, under his Feet, Edwardus quartus.

And beneath are a Lion and a Hart.

Of

Of King Edward the 5th, vested in the like Robe, Scepter and Globe, but his Crown set over, not on his Head, under whom is this,

Edwardus quintus.

Also the Figures of a Lion and a Pricket.

Of King Henry the 7th, robed, crown'd, bearing a Scepter and Globe, with these Words, Henricus vii.

And lower, a Dragon and a Grey Hound.

Underneath these Pictures is this Inscription.

Orate pro Dno. Olivero Kyng, Iuris Professore, ac illustris Edwardi primogeniti Regis Henrici sexti, et Serenissimorum Regum Edwardi 4ti. Edwardi quinti, et Henrici septimi, Principali Secretario, dignissimi Ordinis Cantuarii Registris, et huius sacri Collegii Canonico, An. Dni. 1489.
Es

Et postea per dictum Illustrissimum Regem Henr. septim. Anno Dni. 1492. ad sedem Croniensem commendato.

Opposite to the said Pictures, on the South Side of the Ile, lyes a Grave-stone thus circumscribed.

William King, Second Son to John King, Præbendary of this Chapell, and Mary his Wife, being soon weary of his Abode on Earth, left them to preserve a Memorial of him, after ten Weeks Pilgrimage, under this Marble, Dec. 22. 1633.

Near the Head of the Stone is the Figure of the said Infant in his Cradle on a Brasse Plate. Underneath are these Verses.

*Here the sad Parents second Summons lyes Withdrawn, to draw from Earth to Paradise
Their stooping Thoughts, he hasten'd to repay
What they could lend, dull macerated Clay,
To feast the Worms; what Heaven gave (them doth rest
To feast with Innocents: Thus from the Brest
Ravish'd by Death, so near our Saviours Birth,
To share in Saints and Angells Christmasks

On another Grave-stone, exactly like the last mentioned, is the following Inscription.

*Dorothy King, lent to her Parent
John King, Doctor of Divinitie, Prebendarie of this Chappell, and Marie his Wife, but speedily requir'd again, Octob. 18. 1630.*

On a Brass Plate, in the middle of this Stone, are these Verses.

*Here lyes a Modell of frail Man,
A tender Infant, but a Span
In Age or Stature, here shee must Lengthen out both, bedded in Dust,
Nyne Months imprison'd in the Wombe,
Eight on Earths Surface free, the Tombe
Must make compleat her Diarie
So leave her to Eternity.*

Between the Choir and the Altar, under an Arch on the South Side, was a fair Monument erected over the Body of Henry VI. murder'd by Richard Duke of Gloucester, and removed from Chertsey Abbey in Surrey hither, of which nought now remains, except the several Devises of this King, and on the Key Stone his Royal Arms, ensigned with a Crown, and supported by two Antilopes, collered and chained together. In the South Window of which Arch was painted the History of his unhappy Life, which, with many other Windows, were destroyed in the Rebellion. He was the Founder of St. Mary's College at Eton, and St. Nicholas's at Cambridge. Of him and his Rival, Mr. Pope, in his Windsor Forest, descants in the following manner, pag. 13.

*Let softer Strains Ill-fated Henry mourn,
 And Palms Eternal flourish round his Urn;
 Here o'er the Martyr King the Marble weeps,
 And fast beside him once fear'd Edward sleeps,
 Whom not th' extended Albion could contain,
 From old Belerium to the German Main,
 The Grave unites; where ev'n the Great find (rest,
 And blended lie th' Oppressor and th' Opprest!*

In the North Ile, near the Chapter-House Door, on a Marble Grave-stone, was the Figure of an Ecclesiastick, but now stol'n away; on either Side of the Body are remaining 3 Scrowls thus inscribed.

Grace me guide.

Near this Place is a Monument of Steel polished and gilt, representing a pair of Gates betwixt two Towers, all of transparent Workmanship, after the Gothick Manner, placed in the North Arch, faced through with Touch Stone, erected in Memory of King Edward the Fourth, who died 9 April, 1483. Over this Arch hung the King's Coat of Male, gilt, covered over with Crimson Velvet, and on it were the Arms of France and England quarterly, richly embroidered with Pearl and Gold, interwoven with several Rubies. This Trophy of Honour had ever since his Funeral hung safely over his Grave, but was plundered thence by Captain Fogg, 23 October, 1642. (on which Day he also robb'd the Treasury of the Chapel of all the rich Plate, dedicated to the Use of the Altar) yet having met with an exact Measure and Size of each Part thereof, as also of his Banner, both heretofore taken by Sir William le Neve, sometime Clarencieux King of Arms, an exact Observer of any Thing curious, referring to Arms of Ceremony, we think fit to transmit it thus to Posterity.

The Coat of Arms was two Foot seven Inches deep, and below two Foot in breadth.

Above (the Maunches being extended) in Breadth three Foot and six Inches; whereof the length of each Maunch was one Foot.

The Breadth of the upper Part of the Coat, besides the Maunches, one Foot and a half.

The Breadth of each Maunch one Foot and eight Inches.

The Arms were embroidered upon Velvet, lin'd with Sattin, and better wrought than they used to Work in those Days.

The Banner, which also hung over his Grave, was of Taffaty, and thereon painted quarterly France and England: It had in Breadth three Foot four Inches, besides a Fringe of about an Inch broad, and in Depth five Foot and four Inches, besides the Fringe.

On the Monument there never was any Inscription, take one therefore composed for for him by some Rhiming Monk, and Registered in a Book in the College of Arms, marked E. VI. viz.

In the South West Corner of the Church is a small Chapel, dedicated to the Virgin Mary, underneath which is a large Vault; at the West End of it hangs a Marble Table, like a Curtain, with this Inscription.

This Chappell (belonging to his Ancestours) wherein lye buried, not only the Bodies of those, whose Tombs are erected, but likewise that of Henry, late Marquess of Worcester, his Grandfather (so eminent for the great Supplies of Men and Money afforded to his Sovereign King Charles the Martyr, whose

whose Cause he strenuously espoused) and for the keeping his Castle of Raglan with a strong Garrison at his own sole Expence, till it became the last in England or Wales, but one, that held out against the Rebels, and then not yeilding it, but after a long Siege, and to the Lord Fairfax, Generalissimo of the Parliaments Forces, in revenge of which Obstinacy, as they termed it, it was demolish'd, and all his Woods and Parks (which were vast) cut down and destroyed, and his Estate sold, by the Act of the then rebellious Parliament, to the great Damage of himself and Posterity (wherein also lyes the Body of Henry the Restorer's Son.)

This Chappell being in the Time of the aforesaid Rebellion, upon the foremention'd Account, much defac'd, and the Brass Work, to a considerable Value, plunder'd and imbezell'd, was restor'd to its primitive Form and Shape, and what was wanting thereunto supply'd, at the Expence and Charge of his present Grace, Henry Duke of Beaufort, Marquess and Earl of Worcester, Lord Herbert of Chepstow, Raglan, and Gower, &c. Knight of the most Noble Order of the Garter, and in the last 2 Reigns President of the Council; in the Principal. of Wales, Lord Lieut. of the Counties and Cities of Gloucester, Hereford, Bristoll, Monmouth, and of all Wales, Constable of the Castle of St. Briavels, Lord Warden of the Forest of Dean, High Steward of the Cities of Gloucester and Hereford, and of the Townes of Malmesbury, Tewksbury and Andover, Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber, and one of the Lords of her Majesties most honourable Privy Council.

'In the Teare of our Lord 1699.

In this Chapel stands a fair raised Tomb, erected by himself, for Charles Somerset, Earl of Worcester, who died April 15. 1526. and his first Wife, Elizabeth Herbert, Daughter and Heir of William Earl of Huntington, and Lord Herbert of Gower and Chepstow. On it lye their Statues in Alabaster; He apparell'd in the Habit of St. George, She bearing on her Kirtle the Arms of Herbert embossed and painted, and on her Mantle her Husband's Arms. The Monument is surrounded with Brass Work. Over it hang his Helm and Crest. On the Wall are painted several Devices and Badges, viz. a Portcullis, with a Bend Sinister over it, a Fleur de lis, a Plume of Fea- thers, the Red Rose, a Grey Hound, Antelope, &c.

At the East End of this Place is a noble White Marble Monument, representing a Person cumbent, with a Canopy over him, and Justice on the Top of it, adorned with Penons, a Standard, Banners, &c. At the bottom is this Inscription.

Near

Near the first Haut Pace, in the Choir of this Chapel, were interred the Bodies of King Henry the VIIIth. and according to Clarendon, Jane Seymour his Wife; but it is said to have been his last Queen, Katherine Parr, according to Mr. Ashmole: A noble Author ends this King's Life with wishing that he could leave him in his Grave, which seems to have put an authoritative Stamp on that fabulous Story raised on his Daughter Queen Mary, that she was so bigotted, as to permit the burning of her Father's dead Body, as a Heretick; but I think her own Character (fair enough, notwithstanding all the Obloquy thrown on it) would sufficiently clear her from such an Inhumanity. But there is said to be stronger, as well as later Evidence of its falsity: At the Burial of King Charles the Ist. of Blessed Memory, who was laid in the same Vault, with his Head lying over against the Eleventh Stall, on the Sovereign's Side; the Earl of Clarendon tells us, in his History of the Rebellion, printed in 8v^o at Oxford, 1707. Vol. 5. pag. 260. that King Charles I. was interred only near; (whereas our Author, Mr. Ashmole, says it was in the very Vault of King Henry VIII.) but I wonder not at all at their Disagreement, when I consider they both both might have received it from the Reports of Persons present, who in the Confusion they were in at the Funeral, might have easily been mistaken; but where-ever King Charles Ist's Body was laid, by the Care of the rebellious Governor of this Castle, Whitchcot, after the Restoration, neither Grave nor Corpse could be found, tho' no small search was made after it, when an honourable Interment was deligned, and some Persons then alive present at the Solemnity, giving this Account to the King (Charles II.) the thought of that Remove was laid aside; and the Reason communicated to very few, for the better discountenancing farther Enquiry. Our noble Historian, in pag. 260, and 261. is more particular than I have here, to avoid Repetition, mentioned. On the other Hand, Dr. Nalton in his Preface to the King's Trial, tells the World, that when the Long Parliament had voted an honourable Interment for their late Prince, who had suffer'd so unjustly, all was stopt, by reason that the Persons order'd to regulate the Ceremony, when they came to examine the Royal Coffin, found the Body missing. This, says an Anonymous * Author, (upon

 “ says he, foreseeing that his Son would “ undoubtedly come in, we took care
 “ that his Father’s Body should not be “ idolatrously worshipped by the Cava-

 “ it to the Place of common Execution.

62 Yeares*

On the North Side of the Church, on the paved Walk, is this Inscription.

*Here lyeth the Body of Nathanael Vestment, one of the Gentlemen of her Majesties Chapell Royal of Whitehall, and of this Free Chappell, and of Eton College. He departed this Life the 23 of August, 1702.
aged 42 Years.*

On

On another Black Stone Tomb is this Inscription.

*Here lieth the Body of Mr. William Howe, late Gent. of the Chappell to King Charles the First, of blessed Memory; to his most sacred Majesty King Charles the Second that now is, and Petit-Canon of his Majesties
Free Chappell, in all which he lived 46
Yeares, and having laboured in his Calling with equall Industry and Skill to the good of maney, and Satisfaction of all, at length left this Life for a better in a good old Age.
He dyed aged 66 Yeares, on the 21 of Aprill, Anno Dom. 1676.*

*As also the Body of Anne his Wife, who dyed February the 1st.
1680. aged 63 Tears.*

On a Brass Plate, fix'd in the Wall, near the North Door, is this Inscription.

*Here lieth George Brooke, some-tyme Yeoman of the Guard unto K. Hen. 8. Ed. 6. Q. Mary, Q.
Eliz. and now is untill the Time of his Death, who died the 24 of October, 1593. in the 35th Year of her Majesties Reign.*

He lived Content with mean Estate,
And long ago prepared to die,
The Idle Person he did hate,
Poor Peoples Wants he did supply.

The foregoing is the original Inscription.

Out of a Respect to the Memory of the deceased, and also to the Honour and Antiquity of the said Guard, this Plate was repaired, enlarged, and engraven at the sole Charge of Edward Phillips, Citizen and Merchant-Taylor of London, and one of the 100 Yeomen of the Guard to King William the III. and Queen Mary the II. of Blessed Memory, and now to her Majesty Queen Anne, in the 6th Year of her Reign, and the 52d Year of his Age, Anno Dom. 1707.

On a Tomb Northward, on the outside of the Church, within the Rails, is this Inscription.

Adjoyning to the East End of this Chapel is a fair Edifice of Free-stone, raised by the most munificent Cardinal Wolsey, called the Tomb-House, from a stately Tomb which the Cardinal designed, some say for himself, others with more Truth, for his Master, King Henry VIII. this he had near finished before his un-

unhappy Fall, and more miserable Death. This Place King Charles I. designed to enlarge, and make it a proper Dormitory for himself and all succeeding Royal Families; but the worst of Times hasting on him, his Thoughts were diverted another Way, and the Place and imperfect Tomb were demolished and defaced, by the Command of the Rebel Parliament, on April 6. 1646. and all the Statues, and Figures of gilt Copper, of an exquisite Workmanship, made for its Ornament, taken from thence, and clandestinely made away with. Some Years after, upon some other Thoughts, the famous Verrio was employed in the painting of the Roof, and is said to have in this Place exceeded all his other Labours, and out-done himself: Pity it is that this beautiful Roof is not more exposed to the publick View, and the Place it self kept in better Order. The Design and Scheme of this Piece of Painting is in it self very proper, and deserves the ablest Pen to give an equal Description; but since none have yet gratified the World, take the following, as communicated to me by a worthy Gentleman, who, though altogether unskilled in these Affairs, was unwilling this should be entirely omitted, viz.

Ist. King James the Second in his Royal Garter Robes, holding a Scepter in his Hand, is seated on a triumphal Arch; over him, Westward, are the Representations of several Poetical Deities; a Crown is held over his sacred Head by Two Figures of Time and Peace (as I conceive) over these an Angel holds a Scrawl with this Inscription.

CONCORDIA FRATRUM.

IId. Below him, Eastward, are more of the Gods, as Mars, &c. beating down, and destroying Faction, Fury, Sedition, Rebellion, &c.

IIId. At the East End, in two Ovals, are two several Figures of King Charles the Martyr, with a Scrawl bearing this Inscription over him.

CALAMITAS PUBLICAS. *

On the North Side of St. George's Chapel, is a House built for the Habitation of the Priest that officiated in the Chantry of William Lord Hastings, whose Arms, surrounded with a Garter, is fixed over the Door.

* Sic. Orig.

Adjoyning to this is another House, built by Charles Somerset, Lord Herbert, and Earl of Worcester, for his Chantry Priest; and over the Door, as a Distinction, are his Arms in a Garter.

Against the North Door of the Body of this Church, is a House called the New Commons, erected by James Denton, Dean of Lichfield, and formerly one of the Canons of this Church, Anno 1519. for the Lodging and Dieting of such of the Chantry Priests, Choristers, and Stipendiaries, who had no certain Place within the College where to hold Commons in, but were constrained daily to eat their Meals in several Houses of the Town: This House he furnished with proper Utensils for such an Use, the whole Charge amounting to 489 l. 7 s. 1 d. and for all which the Choristers were desired by him (in the Statutes ordained for their Rule and Government) to say certain Prayers, when they entred into the Chapel, and after his Death, to pray for his, and the Souls of all the faithful departed.

On the North Side are Houses for the Dean and Canons, and at the West End others for the Petty Canons, built in the shape of a Fet-Lock (one of the Royal Badges belonging to King Edward IV.) in the Reign of King Henry VIII.

In the Dean's House, on a Tablet of the Coats of Arms of the Knights of the Garter, is this Inscription.

Chri-

Christophorus Wren, Decanus Windforiensis.
1638.

This Square (in which is the Library) is surrounded by a high Wall with several Towers on it.

On the South Side of the lower Ward of this Castle is a Pile of Building for Thirteen of the poor Knights, which contains 13 Rooms, besides a Hall, a Kitchen, and a Pastry. The Stone for Building was brought from Reading, in this County, the Timber from several Places in the Forest, and the Lead and Chimney Ornaments from Suffolk Place in Southwark. This Work was begun on the last Day of February, 1556. and compleated 25 September, 1558. and cost 2747 l. 7 s. 6 d. and is allotted for the poor Knights, who were coæval with the first Foundation, and were then in Number 24, and afterwards encreased to 26, and so continued to 1481. when upon Account of many tedious Quarrels and Brawls between them and the Dean and Canons, they were entirely dropt in the Act of Parliament for the new Incorporation of this Church, and divided from its Constitution. It appears by the last Will of King Henry VIII. that he designed a Re-establishment of this Order, and a Reduction to Thir.

Thirteen, and ordered a Settlement of 600 Pounds per Annum to be made on the Dean and Canons for that end : This King Edw. VI. confirmed Octob. 7. 1549. and immediately after put the Chapter into Possession, who for a short space received the Rents, but were constrained to return the whole Settlement back, to be employed in building a proper Receptacle for these poor Knights. But Queen Elizabeth settled the Foundation, Number, Statutes, and Endowment, as they now stand, which last was doubled by King James I. and made payable out of the Exchequer. To these Thirteen Sir Peter le Maire, Kt. by his last Will, dated 8 January, 1631. added by a Legacy of 1500 Pounds for charitable Uses, at the disposal of his Executor, Sir Francis Crane, Kt. sometime Chancellor of the most noble Order of the Garter, who himself designing an additional Number of Alms Knights, determine to spend the 1500 Pounds he was entrusted with, on a Pile of Building for the Reception of Five he intended ; to this end he charged his Executor, Sir Richard Crane, Bar. in his last Will, dated 27 August, 1635. to see the Buildings, himself had begun, finished ; he also bequeathed for ever 200 Pounds per Annum to be settled in Land by his Executor, according to the Advice and Direction of Thomas, then Earl of Arundel and Surrey, and Henry Lord Matrevers, his eldest Son, for the perpetual Maintenance of five Alms Knights, viz. 40 Pounds per Annum to each. But Charity, as usual, being carried on very slowly, and meeting with many Interruptions, it was at last determined in the Court of Chancery, 19 July, 1655. that the 200 Pounds per Annum should be regularly paid out of the whole Estate of Sir Richard Crane aforementioned, and that the Expences of the Building should be discharged out of his personal Estate; upon this Decree the Building against the West Wall, in the lower Ward, between the Chancellor's and Garter's Towers, was again undertaken, and soon finished, at the Expence of 1700 Pounds. At last, at the end of this Suit, on Jan. 27. 1659. it was decreed that the Manor of Carbrooke, in Norfolk, should for ever stand charged with 200 Pounds per Annum, and 20 Pounds more annually for all future accidental Repairs to this Building, and the whole to be pay'd quarterly in four equal Portions. But enough of this, which is so amply accounted for by our Author, Mr. Ashmole, elsewhere. I shall here omit any mention of the Knights of the Garter, the Officers of that Order, Members
to

bers, or Servants of the Church, their Statutes, Endowments, Privileges, &c. which are all so much enlarged on in the Excellent History of the Garter, to which I refer my Reader for farther Satisfaction; and as to the Succession of the Dean and Canons, and their History, Mr. Frith's Catalogue in its original Language is hereunto annexed, and the proper Additions made to it.

Over against the Stone Bridge which leads into the upper Court, is a neat little Seat, purchased by the late Queen before her Accession to the Throne, and during her being in Disgrace with her Brother, K. William III. The fine Green House, and Gardens adjoining to the Park, are worthy the Notice of all.

Between the Castle and the little House is a Passage into the Little Park, (so called to distinguish it from the larger) which is about Three Miles in compass, the Walks are finely shaded, and is well stock'd with Deer. In this Park, near the Road side, from Old Windsor, is the Keeper's Lodge, a very beautiful Retirement, which received great Improvements from the late Admiral Churchill, who made a fine Aviary and Gardens. The House of Office must not be passed over, adorned with the History of Cortez, the famous famous Spanish General, his Expedition to Mexico in America, &c. all painted on Mother of Pearl, being part of that infamous Plunder committed at Port St. Mary's and Vigo; and by some of the Actors in it presented to the Admiral.

Facing this Park, and near the Castle, is a handsom Seat belonging to Charles Beauclair, Duke of St. Albans, one of the Knights of the Garter, which was built by his Mother, in the Reign of K. Charles II.

Adjoyning to this Little Park is another larger, containing Fourteen Miles in its Circumference. It is stocked with all Sorts of Game for the Royal Diversion. In it King Charles II. built a Lodge for the Use of the Keeper, and for his own Diversion. It received many Additions and Advantages from the late Earl of Portland; and since from the present Ranger, the Dutchess of Marlborough.

About a Mile from hence, in the Forest, on the top of a Hill, is CRANBURN Lodge, built by Richard Jones, late Earl of Ranelagh, Pay-Master to the Army during the Time of K. William III. Here is visible an elegant Taste of Architecture, Painting, and Gardening, but more remarkable for the spaciousness of its Prospect. In one of the Closets, which has Windows on every Side, is a View over Windsor, and both the Parks, Eastward to London, and the Country round, at above Twenty Miles distance, and Westward a fine View of easy rising Grounds covered with Trees; in short, every Way the Prospect is delightful: Nor has Art been less profuse than Nature, if we consider the large and fine Gardens, the Fish-Ponds, and curious Greensward Descent to them, which, with the other Improvement, must have cost much Time, and have been very expensive. Not long since a Bill was brought into Parliament for a Sale of this Estate, but on February 24. 171 $\frac{1}{2}$. it was rejected.

About the Year 1705. at St. Leonard's Hill, about a Mile and half from Windsor Castle were found the Roman Antiquities (of which you have the Draughts in the Page) under a large Stone by Mr. Robert Butler, a Gardiner: In digging he observed a considerable Quantity of Ashes, Cinders, &c. upon the Brow of the Hill, and found also several Earthen Vessels, entire as well as broke, some of larger, and others of smaller Dimensions, some of which the Gardiner conceived to be Molds: At the same Place were found many fair, intelligible Silver and Brass Roman Coins. This Place was, I doubt not not, part of the antient Bibroci, who submitted to Cæsar, and a Roman Camp at no great distance, seems to favour the Notion of this having been a Fabrica, or Forge for the making of their Warlike Instruments.

To what Uses the Instruments (here delineated) have been put, is a Question among the Learned; as to (Numb. I. and III.) some have conjectured them British, and to have been Axes, others Heads of Spears, or walking Staves used by the Britons, others Roman Catapulta; some have thought them to be sacrificing Instruments; but these Notions, and several others, having been refuted by Mr. Hearne, and the Matter it self clearly stated concerning these two Instruments, I shall refer you to his Discourse concerning some Antiquities lately found in Yorkshire, in a Letter to Mr. Thoresby, of Leeds, with an Extract out of Mr. Thoresby's Letter (dated Nov. 19. 1709.) that occasioned this Discourse, printed at the End of the first Vol. of John Leland's Itinerary, Oxford, 1710. 8vo. pag. 97. In this excellent Piece, the Matter seems to be accurately examined, and the Opinions of Antients and Moderns weigh'd, and the Affair it self exhausted. (Numb. II.) I take to be the Head of an Arrow, Dart, or Ja-

Javelin. (Numb. IV.) gave me some trouble to find out a Lamp (for such I take it to be) like it, already described : In particular, I carefully consulted a Piece wrote ex professo on the Subject of the antient Sepulchral Lamps, entitled, Le Antiche Lucerne Sepolcrali figurate raccolte dalle Cave sotteranee, e Grottee di Roma nelle quali si contengono molte erudite Memorie diseg-nate, ed intagliate nelle loro forme da Pietro Sancti Bartoli divisee in tre parti con l'Osservazioni di Gio. Pietro Bellori. Rom. 1691. Fol. but among that great Variety in this excellent and useful Piece, I could find no Resemblance, or gather any Light. I cannot say that in some others on this Subject I do remember any Thing of this Figure, though I have not been so happy as to see Licetus on this Subject ; but amidst these my Searches and Enquiries, a worthy Gentleman was pleased to communicate to me a Book entitled, Batavia Illustrata, seu de Batavorum Insula, Hollandia, Zelandia, Frisia, Territorio Trajectensi, et Gelria, Scriptores varii nota melioris nunc primum Collecti simulque Editi. Ex Museo Petri Scriverii, Lugd. Batav. 1609. 4to. herein, pag. 217. I found a Lamp very much, though not altogether, like this, which our Author calls Lucerna Polymyxos, myxos, which was found at Romæoburgi, i. e. Roomburgh, near Leyden; he describes it in the same Page in this manner, Lampadem aneam, quadrifidam (quæ in quatuor veluti guttos exit unde Ellychnia flammam vomebant, et in quaterñas, columnas circinarum cælum excipientes assurgit) istic repertam asservat, et expressam opera Pictoris communicavit, ut hic apponetur, Cornelius Nicolaus Aquanus, homo Antiquitatis studiosissimus. Of this Sort of Lamp, Martial speaks in his Epigram on LUCERNA POLYMYXOS, Lib. 14.

Totque geram Myxas, una Lucerna vocor.*

In consulting several Authors to discover the Uses Numb. V. and VI. were put to, I have been no ways negligent, but cannot be so happy as to make any Discovery, or a meer probable Conjecture. I must question whether they are Roman or Danish; the several Sorts of Things discovered here do but perplex us; in particular, a very large, long Spur, which undoubtedly belonged to the Danes, and of which there is one now preserved in the Physick School near the Bodleian Library in Oxford.
Waving

ving therefore all impertinent Conjectures, I shall leave this Subject to be more at large enquired into by the Lovers of Antiquity, and return my Thanks to the worthy GENTLEMAN, who was pleased to take the Draughts of these Curiosities, and communicated them to the Editor of this Work.

CUSTO.

CUSTODES sive DECANI.

ULIELMUS MUGG, per D. Reg. Edw. 3. Fundatorem, Custos primus constitutus est Ann. Reg. sui 22. Dom. 1348. Benefactor, cujus Obitus celebratus est 20 Feb. Custos fuit per triginta & duos annos.

Quamvis Statuta Collegii, & Constitutiones, juxta quas, Custos sive Decanus & Canonici, unà cum ministris ibidem regulari debent, non sunt edita ante ann. 26 dicti Regis, constat tamen quod præfatus Rex per Literas suas Patentes foundationem instituit, dictumque Custodem & 8 Canonicos de duodecim inibi sustentandos in hac Liberæ Capella constituit Ann. Reg. 22. quibus tantum de Thesauro suo annis singulis Clarigi concessit, quantum cum emolumento ex Ecclesiis de Wyrardsbury, Southanton & Uttosazre, dictis Custode & Canonicis præconcesso proveniente, ad supportationem omnium onerum, & juxta condecenciam statûs sui sufficiens videretur, quousque de bonis immobilibus, terris seu redditibus usque ad summam mille librarum

THOMAS MANNING, installatus Decanus 1452. 31 Hen. 6. Decanus per 10 Annos. Quamvis juxta præscriptas primi Fundatoris Leges, non licuit Decano & Canonicis terras & tenementa Collegii ad firmam dimittere ultra quinquennium, quod quidem statutum per diversas Successiones sartum tectum habebatur, tamen circa hoc tempus effugium quoddam ex cogitarunt, unde se ex hac tanta angustia extricarent. Dictas scilicet terras dimittendo ad quinquennium usque ad terminum 20, aut 30, aut fortasse 40 Annorum, sed non ultra, quam formam & modum postea per alias fere totidem Successiones observarunt.

JOHAN. FAUX, installatus 1462. 2 Edw. 4. obiit 1470. Decanus per 8 Annos. Quo Decano, Rex Edw. Maneria de Ashorston, in Com. Warw. de Chefingbury, in Wilt., & de Quarte in Com. Southampt. Prioratum de Uphaven, Decanatum S. Buriane in Cornubia, & annuam pensionem de XX lib. ex Rectoria de Rotheram, in Com. Ebor. uno eodemque Diplomate concessit. Sed ex his omnibus Pensionem tantum de Rotheram possidemus, Manerium de Chefingbury ad paucos annos possiderunt Prædecessores nostri, sed quomodo, vel quâ de causâ ab eodem recesserunt, non constat, de reliquis nihil unquam habuerunt.

Etonense

Etonense etiam Collegium Authoritate Regali nec non Papali Pii, scil. 2. huic Regiæ Capellæ annectitur & appropriatur. Pensionibus quibusdam Præposito & Sociis, &c. ad terminum vitæ eorum assignatis. Sed Gulielmus Westbury, tunc Præpositus, summa prudentiâ & animæ fortitudine præditus, huic Unioni acquiescere noluit, sed se totis viribus opposuit: Unde post aliquantulam, regnante Ed. 4. mutationem, tamque præclari ædificii ruinam minitantem, fundatio prædicta, Henrico 7. rerum porito, authoritate Parlamenti redintegratur & stabilitur. Bulla prædicti Pii 2. per Papam Paulum 2. prius revocata & annihilata.

GULIELMUS MORLAND, installatus per Procuratorem 26 Febr. 1470. 10 Ed. 4. & in persona sua 8 Martii, Decanus per Annam 1. & 8 menses.

JOHANNES DAVISON, install. 30 Octob. 1471. 11 Edw. 4. ad Decanatum Sarum translatus 1473. Decanus per 2 Ann.

GULIELMUS DUDLEY, Coll. Univerf. Oxon. Alumnus, Ecclesiæ Collegiæ de Wolverhampton Præbendarius, cui etiam Benefactor: Johannis Dudleii Baronis filius, postquam Canonatum suum in hac Libera Capellâ resignâssset, An. 1470. installatus est Decanus 4 Dec. 1473. 13 Ed. 4. Episcopus Dunelmensis consecratus 1476. obiit 1483. Decani & Canonici sexcentas libras annuas & amplius per Procuratores suos percipiebant. Unde ne Denarium quidem hodie capiunt. Tanto lucrosior est superstitio Romana, quam Religio Orthodoxa. Rex* per Lit. suas Patentes concessit, de quibus nihil unquam ad Decanum & Canonicos pervenit.

PETRUS COURTNEY, Philippi Courtneii, Eq. Aur. & Elizabetha (filia Walteri, Baronis Hungerford,) filius, L. L. D. Archi-Diaconus Exon. Mr. Hospitalis S. Antonii, Lond. tempore annexationis ejusdem huic Regia Capellæ: Cui Decanus & Canonici Pensionem annuam 100 Marcarum concedunt, quoniam custodiam dicti Hospitalis resignavit, An. 1474. quousque promotus fuerit per D. Regem ad tale beneficium, quale ipse acceperat voluerit. Unde Decanus hic per eundem D. Regem constitutus, installatus 11 Oct. 1476. 16 Edw. 4. ad Episcopatum Exon. promotus, 1477. & ad Winton. translatus, 1486. Decan. per. Annum 1. & 6 menses.

RICHARDUS BEAUCHAMP, L. L. D. ex Regali Prosapia ortus, qui per 27 Ann. ante Installationem in Decanatum hunc, fuit Episcopus Sarum. Nam Episcopus consecratus est 1450. & installatus Decan. 1477. 17 Edw. 4. Mar. 4. primus Cancellarius præclarissimi Ordinis de Garter, Constitutus 10 Feb. 16. Ed. 4. Decanus & Episcopus simulque dicti Ordinis Cancellarius per 4 Ann. hoc est, quam diu deinceps vixit.

Reverendus ille Præsul Prioratum de Sandleford, juxta Newbury in Berks, a Monachis derelictum indeque in manus suas devolutum, una cum possessionibus & hæreditamentis ejusdem huic Regiæ Capellæ assignavit & appropriavit.

Eodemque Episcopo adhuc Decano & apud Regiam Majestatem mediante, idem Rex Edwardus Patronus & Benefactor munificentissimus concessit licentiam, pro terris in manu mortua tenendis ad valorem 500 l. per Ann. Præbendam quoque de Ecorne, in Com. Dors. & Ecclesiam de Cheshunt, in Com. Herts. sed hæc Ecclesia processu Legali amissa est Hen. 7. regnante, Domina Margaretta Comitissa Richmondie Actore.

Wolverhampton etiam Decanatus, huic Decanui per eundem D. Regem est unitus, & amplissimum illud Manerium de Leighton Buffard, in Bedfordsh. cum membris suis ex licentia, Decano & Canonicis conceditur per Willielmum Ducem Suff. & Miciam Uxorem suam.

THOMAS DANET, S. Theol. D. Eleemosynarius D. Regis, ex Canonico installatus Decanus 1481. 21 Edw. 4. Obiit & sepultus est Windfora * juxta ostium domus Capitularis 1483. Decanus per 2 Annos.

GULIELMUS BENLEY, installatus Anno 1483. 1 Rich. 3. Decanus per Annum 1.

JOHANNES MORGAN, L. L. D. installatus 1484. 2 Rich. 3. consecratus Episcopus Menevensis 1495. Decanus per 11 Annos. Ab. Ann. 1470. ad Ann. 1484. inclusive, hoc est, infra spatium 15 annorum installati sunt (ut superius patet) octo Decani: quamvis a prima Collegii fundatione usque ad prædictum Ann. 1470. viz. per spatium 122 annorum tantummodo septem in hoc officio præfuerunt.

CHRISTOPHERUS URSEWYKE, Decanus ex Canonico installatus 20 Nov. 1495. 12 Hen. 7. cui ex secretioribus consiliis, Eleemosynarius summus, & ad Carolus 8 Francorum Regem Legatus: fuit etiam Decanus Ebor. Hunc inter Cardinales recenset Panvinus, sed fallitur; erat Christophorus Bambridge, proximus hujus Decani & hic & Ebor. successor. Obiit 24. Oct. 1521. & sepultus est Hacknia prop. Lond. ubi etiam Rector fuit. Decanus per 10 Annos.

Ad ejusdem & Canonicorum positionem, Prioratus de Sandleford, cum iusta solennitate & secundum exigentiam juris iterum appropriatur per Hen. Episcopum Sarum: Quod perfunctorie & non in Juris forma per Rich. Beauchamp (ut supra) factum est.

* Vide pag. 139.

His etiam temporibus, eo quod possessiones bonæque nonnulla per D. Regem Edw. 4. Decano & Canonicis collata, per potentiam aliquorum magnatum substracta fuerunt & detenta, ad valorem ultra summam 400 Marcarum per Ann. bonæque alia & Possessiones hujus Collegii in quibus ex antiquo dotatum erat non mediocriter diminuta extiterunt, ideo ut de congrua subventionis cpe provideretur, Vicaria de North Marston, in Com. Buck. Decano & Canonicis per Willicmum Episcopum Lync. præhabitâ, Licentiâ Regiâ, appropriatur (sed non sine summis impensis summâque hujus Decani & Canonicoꝝ cura & diligentia adhibita, nec minori studio ac labore præstito, cum debita solennitate ac singulis stricti Juris circumstantiis ad apicem usque observatis) quæ quidem Vicaria in suis proventibus, præsertim in oblationibus factis in Ecclesia ibidem, ex devotione fidelium ad tumbam Magistri Johannis Shorne, dudum Rectoris ibidem copiose confluentium, tam fertilis & abundans extitit, quod ex hujusmodi oblationibus & proventibus, præfati Decanus & Canonici in suis necessitatibus relevarentur (sic enim permissa in ipso appropriationis Instrumento totidem fere verbis habentur, in qua quidem appropriatione pensiones quædam perpetuæ Episcopo Lync. Decano & Capitulo Lync. & Arch-Diacono Bucks. ad summam 40 sol. ad minus per Ann. reservantur, quas hodie Decanus & Canonici ex Rectoria ibidem persolvunt, dum fructus & proventus ipsius Vicariæ universi ad sustentandum Curatum idoneum vix, aut ne vix quidem sufficiunt.

Heu

Heu quanto conatu & sumptu, quantisque Prædecessorum exantlatis laboribus, successorum dispendium comparatur. Dum tandem superstitionis caligine dissipata, lux Evangelii elucescere cæpit.

Iste demum Decanus Benefactor fuit, ex cujus beneficentia Decanus & Canonici, sicut etiam Choristæ & alii non nihil annuatim percipiunt, qui in Domo post festum Paschæ interfunt.

CHRISTOPHERUS BAMBRIDGE, vel Bainbridge, Coll. Reginæ Oxon. Alumnus, cui etiam Benefactor, L. L. D. Custos Rotulorum, Decanus Ebor. installatus hic Ann. 1505. 21 Hen. 7. Ad Episcopatum Dunelmensem promotus 1507. & ad Archi-Episcopatum Ebor. translatus 1508. In Cardinalium numerum a Papa Julio 2. coopatus 1511. Obiit Romæ veneno extinctus 1514. & sepultus est ibidem in Ecclesia S. Trinitatis Anglorum. Decanus per 3 fere Annos.

THOMAS HOBBS, S. Th. D. Coll. Omnium Animarum Oxon. Socius electus 1482. deinde Custos ibid. 1494. Ex Canonico installatus Decanus 1507. 23 Hen. 7. Obiit Windforæ, ubi & sepultus est An. 1510. Decanus per 3 Annos.

NICHOLAUS WEST, Etonæ educatus, ad Coll. Regale Cantabrigia translatus, indeque expulsus. In Academiam tamen ob indolem receptus, tandemque L. L. D. creatus est, Decanus installatus 1510. 1 Hen. 8. consecratus Episcopus Eliensis 1515. Obiit 1533. Decanus per 5 Annos, & in Ecclesiæ Eliensis Capella ab ipso fundata, sepultus est. Prædium vocatum Coldbams, in Parochia de Clavering, in Com. Essex. per Decanum hunc & Canonicos justo pretio comparatur.

JOHANNES VOYSEY, alias HARMAN, Coll. Magdal. Oxon. Socius, L. L. D. Domest. Capellæ Regiæ Decanus, installatus 1515. 6 Hen. 8. Ad Episcopatum Exon. promotus 1519. cujus deprædator extitit. Oppidanis vero de Sutton Cofield, in Com. Warw. (unde ortum duxit) Benefactor insignis. Oppidum enim ipsum Mercatorium fieri procuravit, & pro Oppidanis Incorporationem impetravit. Quibus terras pluresque & alia proficua diversa, præter tementa ibidem permulta, ex lapidibus quadratis de novo ædificata, in perpetuum assignavit. Decanus per 4 Annos.

JOHANNES CLERK, S. Th. D. (potius utriusque Juris Professor) Rotulorum Custos, installatus 1519. 11 Hen. 8. ad Pontificem Romanum Legatus Regius, consecratus Episcopus Bath. & Well. 1523. Obiit ex veneno in Germania 1540. Decanus per 4 Annos: De eo vide in vita Hen. 8. per D. Herbertum Edit. 1672. p. 94. sub. Ann. 1520.

RICHARDUS SAMPSON, L. L. D. Domest. Capellæ Regiæ Decanus, nec non Ecclesiæ D. Pauli Lond. installatus per Procuratorem, (ipso in remotis agente Regiisque negotiis detento) 14 Nov. 1523. 15 Hen. 8. & in propria persona 20 Maii, 1526. ad Episcopatum Cicestrensem promotus 1536. & ad Covent. & Litchfield, translatus 1543. Decanus per 12 Annos. Obiit 25 Sept. 1554. & sepultus est in Ecclesia de † Ecclesball, in Com. Staffordiensi.

GUDIELMUS FRANKLIN, Coll. Regalis Cantabrigiæ Socius, Rector de Chalfont^{si}. Egidii in

* Vid. Antiq. Eccles. Litchfield, pag. 48.

Com. Bucks, installatus 19 Decem. 1536. 28 Hen. 8. Decanus per 17 Annos. Primus Decanus fuit, qui una cum Canonicis tunc Residentibus, postposito prorsus Fundatoris Statuto (quamvis Juramento proprio sancito) possessiones Collegii quamplurimas ad tempus immensum, nec adhuc (1618.) elapsum dimisit. Imo primus & ultimus fuit, qui hæreditamenta nonnulla in perpetuum alienavit, viz. Maneria de Ivor in Bucks: & de Damory Court in Dors. &c. Rex autem Edw. 6. (eodum adhuc Decano) diversas Rectorias appropriatas Decano & Canonicis donavit, tum ad compensandum eos pro Maneriis, &c. prædictis Regi Hen. 8. Patri suo præconcessis, tam ad sustentandum pauperes Milites in hac Regiâ Capella. Atque hæc donatio Nova Dotatio appellatur.

OWENUS OGLETHORP, S. T. P. Coll. Magd. Oxon. Socius deinde Præses, ex Canonico installatus Decanus 1553. Maria 1^o. electus & admissus Scriba Ordinis de Garter in Vigiliis S. Georgii, Anno eodem [potius in Ann. 1554.]

Et ut consuetum salarium 50 librarum dicto Officio debitum è Scaecario quorannis per Supremum & Commilitones sancitum est. 24 ap. Ann. sequente ad Episcopatum Carleolensem promotus 1556. Reginam Elizabetham Diademate Regio insignivit 1558. Decanus per 3 Annos.

A prima præcellentissimi Ordinis prædicti institutione huc usque nemo nisi merè Canonicus, Scribæ seu Registrarii Officium obibat. Iste etiam Decanus & successores sui, non quatenus Decani, sed quatenus Canonici ejusdem muneris capaces facti sunt, prout statuta dicti Ordinis exigunt.

HUGO

HUGO WESTON, S. T. P. Coll. Lync. Oxon. Rector. In Convocatione totius Cleri Cantuariensis Provinciæ, Mariæ 1^o. habita Prolocutor: Decanus Westmonasterii, unde volens nolens ut Monachis ibidem aditus iterum patefieret, ad Windeforam translatus est Ann. 1556. 4^o. Mariæ, sed in Adulterio deprensus, Decanatu isto una cum aliis beneficiis suis universis privatus est per Cardinalem Polum Archi-Episcopum Cant. 1557. A cujus sententia appellavit, fugamque ad partes transmarinas capeffit. Sed interceptus & in Turrem Londinensem conjectus, ibique detentus est usque ad initium regni Elizabethæ Regina: Ex cujus gratia tunc particeps factus, libertate donatus est, qui paulo post obiit. Decanus per Annum 1 & amplius.

JOHANNES BOXHALL, S. Th. D. Mariæ Regina Principalis Secretarius, installatus 1557. Phil. & Mariæ 4. & 5. Scriba nobilissimi Ordinis de Garter electus, & juratus eodem Anno Feb. 6. eo quod Reformationi ab Elizabethæ Regina institutæ adversaretur, Decanatu isto multatus est, & cum Tonstallo Dunelmensi, & Thirlbæo Eliensi Episcopis in liberam Custodiam Archi-Episcopi Cantuariensis donatus est 1559. Decanus circa duos Annos.

GEORGIUS CAREW, Edmundi Baronis Carew de Mullesford filius tertius, Georgii Baronis Carew, de Clopton, & Comitibus de Totnes pater, magister de la Savoy, Lond. Qui simul etiam & eodem tempore Decanus fuit Domesticus & hujus liberæ Capellæ Regiæ, nechon Ecclesiarum Cathedralium Exon. & Oxon. Rector de Silferton, in Devon. & installatus hic 1559. Eliz. 1^o. & Scriba inclytissimi Ordinis prædicti cum sædo 50 li.

librarum ex fisco Regio quotannis percipiend.
admissus & juratus est 22 Apr. Eliz. 2°. Deca-natum hunc cum Canonicatu resignavit Eliz. 14.
sicut etiam reliquas suas dignitates & beneficia Ecclesiastica universa ante mortem. Obiit 1585.
& sepultus est in Ecclesia S^{ti} Agidii Occid.
prope Lond. ubi & Rector fuit. Cui in Decanatu successit G. Day, & in Canonicatu Hugo Blyth, Decanus per tredecim Annos.

Satis liquet Decanum hunc propter promo-tiones suas predictas, aliaque beneficia Ecclesiastica quibus perfruebatur, ab hoc Coll. ut plurimum abfuisse; & utrum præsens an absens fuerit in aliquibus ex pessimis illis & iniquissi-mis sub Decanatu suo firmarum dimissionibus incertum est. In quam plurimis eum abfuisse manifeste liquet; hoc autem certo certius est, quod Maneria hujus Collegii fere universa una cum Sylvis & Regalibus annexis, nunquam autem elocatis, necnon pleraque alia hæreditamenta præcipua, infra spatium octodecim mensium sub Decanatu suo ad 99 Annos dimissa.
Nec dubitandum est quin reliqua etiam omnia
eodem modo elocarentur, nisi Honoratissimus Custos magni Sigilli Angliæ, D. Nich. Bacon,
Eq. Aur. hujus Regiæ Capellæ, ratione officii, Visitator dignissimus, tempore maxime opportuno respectu agendorum, quamvis sero ni-nimis respectu actorum, primo per Literas suas absens, deinde in propria persona sua adveniens in Visitatione sua An. 1568. inchoata, De-canum & Canonicos a dimissione quacunque facienda inhibuisset. Demumque Injunctionibus suis An. 1571. editis, dimissiones prædictas, ut nequiter factas, condemnasset. Lex etiam interim saluberrima, ex corruptissimis illorum moribus ad sempiternum omnium Ecclesiarum & Collegiorum bonum nata, & ab ipso Honoratissimo Visitatore composita in Parlamento feliciter lata & edita est Eliz. 13^o. de non elocandis Terris & tenementis ultra terminum 21 Annorum aut trijū Vitarum.

GULIELMUS DAY, S. Th. Bacc. Coll. Regalis Cantabr. Socius, Etonensis Collegii Præpositus, Rector de Hambleton in Bucks: ex Canonico installatus Decanus 22 Aug. 14 Eliz. 1572. Quamvis Scribæ sive Actuarii nobilissimi Ordinis officium supplevit, non tamen juratus nec admissus est, sed tantum hoc idem agere (sicut antea perageret) supremæ nomine missus est in Vigiliis Georgianis, 26 Eliz. 1584. ad Episcopatum Wintoniensem promotus 1595. Decanus per 24 fere Annos.

Ante tempus Decanatus ejus Lex ante dicta in Parlamento lata est, statuto etiam Fundatoris de non elocandis firmis ultra quinquennium pristinum suum robur obtinente. Attamen Fundatoris præscripto contemptui habito, & decreto Parliamenti subdole eluso, Manerium de Piston, in Com. Oxon. (cum Sylvis amplissimis) quod solum ferè & solitarium in manibus Coll. relictum est, sub nomine Regio (nam alias valere non potuit dimissio) ad 99 Annos a tempore dimissionis conceditur.

Terræ vero Dominicales ejusdem Manerii pro totidem annis in reversione post 40 Annos de termino in aliis dimissionibus præconcesso, tunc residuos, per Decanum hunc & Confratres suos in malo dimittuntur, redditu etiam veteri non paulum diminuto. Rectoria etiam de

South

South Molton, Com. Devon. Valde opima in foedi firma (quantum in ipsis) per 120 Annos conceditur, & in proximo Parlamento, juxta illorum conventionem confirmanda. Sed hæc concessio, Domino Benetto in Decanatu interim succedente, per Parliamentum non confirmatur: Ad terminum vero 120 Annorum dicta Rectoria ex decreto ejusdem locatur. Possessiones quoque reliquæ fere omnes hujus Collegii, quæ ad paucos tantum annos prius dimissæ sunt, paulo ante promotionem hujus Decani ad Wintoniam, ad terminum trium vicarum dimittuntur. Quarum dimissionem ad minus viginti adhuc (1618.) supersunt, quæ quamvis, per 30 ab hinc Annos, aut circiter factæ sunt, nullus tamen Firmariorum vult statum suum pro termino 21 Annorum permutare. Denique Conventiones pro bono Collegii publico in locationibus ad 99 Annos duraturis contentæ relaxantur. Et frumentum in quibusdam ex iis prius reservatum pro minutilo pretio ad totum tempus venturum remittitur.

Hinc est quod multo plus detrimenti sub ejus Decanatu Collegium caperit, quam in quovis alio superiore sæculo: excepto saltem tempore ultimo Prædecessoris sui. Cui etiam dum in absentia sua Dayus iste locum tenens fuit, dimissiones saltem quam plurimæ ad 99 Annos factæ sunt. Sicut ex Schedulis & actuum Capitularium fragmentis, quæ forte fortuna supersunt, adhuc constat. Tam bene promeruit Decanus iste Elogium illud, quod Dominus de Ellesmere summus totius Angliæ Cancellarius in ipsa Cancellaria publice pronuntiavit, viz. Deane Day, had excellent Skill to creep out of the Law. Quam male autem nomen Diei Lucisive appellatio sibi competit, nos, cum ringimus dolore, sentimus qui noctem tenebrosam nonaginta fere annorum, ex Dimissionibus, Relaxationibus, & Remissionibus prædictis huic Collegio illatam post se reliquit. Et ne scirent posterius quis tantarum tenebrarum author fuit, plusquam veri simile est impensè, si non improbè in decessu suo curavit nam non solum dierum & Actuum Capitularium libri priores de toto tempore Decanatus ejus & proximi Prædecessoris sui desiderantur, sed folia etiam prima Actuum jam superstiti de ultima scena actus sui tragici execta sunt, prout ex eorum reliquiis cuivis inspicienti liquido constabit.

ROBERTUS BENETT, Th. D. Coll. S. Trinitatis Cantabrig. Socius, Mr. Hospitalis S. Crucis prope Winton. installatus 24 Mar. 1595. Scriba prænobilis Ordinis de Garter Constitutus & juratus in festo S. Georgii, 1596. Episcopus Hereford. Consecratus 1602. Obiit 1617. Decanus per 7 Annos Iste omnium Decanorum primus fuit, qui per 150 Annos ultimò elapsos, juxta exigentiam statutorum a fundatore editorum, & conscientia juramenti in admissione sua præstiti, nullam omnino firmam dimissione fecit ultra quinquennium toto tempore Decanatus sui.

ÆGIDIUS TOMSON, S. T. P. Coll. Omn. Anim. Oxon. Socius, electus 1580. In Coll. Magd. Theologiæ Prælector, Academiae Procurator, Ecclesiæ Cathedralis Herefordiensis Residentiarius, Capellanus Regius, Rector de Pembridge, in Com. Heref. installatus 2 Mar. 1602. ad Episcopatum Gloucestrensem promotus 1611. Decanatum cum Episcopatu per dispensationem

sationem Régiam ad annum unum obtinuit. Sed anno nondum pleno elapso, vir optimus & integerimus, Concionator valde insignis 14 Junii, moritur, & Windsoræ sepelitur Ann. 1612. Decanus per 9 Annos & 4 Menses. In iisdem vestigiis cum Prædecessore suo ultimo, quoad dimissiones firmarum, insistere perseveravit, donec Regia Majestas D. Jacobus supremus Patronus & Fundator, rationibus quibusdam in petitione Decani & Canonicorum explicatis, permotus, ex plenitudine Potestatis suæ, vetus illud primi Fundatoris statutum abrogavit, novumque sub magno suo sigillo edidit, anno regni sui 1^o. quod deinceps & in perpetuum Decanus & Canonici pro exigentia juramenti in admissione suâ suscepti, observare tenentur: quo cautum est, quod Domorum in Villis Mercatoriis dimissiones ultra 40 Annos, aliorum vero, hæreditamentorum quorumcunque ultra viginti & unum Annos nullatenus fiant.

Sub ejus Decanatu & proximi Successoris, circa Campanas & Campanile, circa Organa & Organorum tabulatum, una cum aliis operibus intestinis infra ipsam Regiam Capellam, ac in reficiendo Bibliothecam publicam, & hujusmodi operibus publicis non ex necessitate aliqua, sed tantum pro dignitate & honore loci per Decanum & Canonicos susceptis & consummatis, plusquam octingentæ libræ erogatæ sunt.

Eodem temporis intervallo dimissiones Rectoriarum S. Germani in Cornubia & de Aberguilly, in Com. Caermarthens. in quibus fere 60 Anni supererant ad terminum 2 Ann. curâ & sumptibus Decani & Canonicorum revocatæ sunt. Terræ quodque & tenementa vocatæ Monklane

& Bellifants, in Com. Wigorn. & Bamfelds in Ustoxeter in Com. Staff. processu Legali in Cancellaria Domini Regis recuperatæ sunt, postquam longo temporis tractu in aliorum possessione fuissent.

Lis etiam magna & per magnum temporis decursum, nec sine summis impensis agitata & continuata inter Decanum & Canonicos & Edw. Comitem Hertford. pro terris & possessionibus plerisque novæ Dotationis; tandem sopita & determinata est, ac hæreditamenta Collegii universa stabilita sunt ex decreto Parliamenti secundo Jacobi.

Denique totus munus Castri exterior inter duos Turres Domui illi Canonicali contiguas, quæ ad Aquilo-Zephyrum & Angularem Domum interioris Claustri sita est, & subito & funditus corrui, die Dominico A. D. 1603. Unde Lis orta est quis instauret, An Dominus Rex, An Decanus & Canonici? tandem vero post longam & maturam in utramque partem deliberationem sub illorum Juramento capta, & in Scaccarium remissa; ac etiam Regii Attornati & Sollicitatoris opinione concurrente, ex finali Baronum Scaccarii sententia, Comitis de Dorset tunc summi totius Anglie Thesaurarii calculo comprobata, & ad mandatum dicti Thesaurarii præfatus munus solis sumptibus & expensis Domini Regis Jacobi re-edificatus est. Postquam Reverendus ille Præsul tunc Decanus, & Canonici per petitiones suas humillimas Domino Regi exhibitas, & per rationes ac allegationes justissimas, a præfato Domino Thesauraria & aliis Officiariis Regiis approbatas, totam causæ veritatem explicassent, nec destiterunt, donec ad debitum finem

finem perduxissent, quamvis per 4 fere Annos Lis interminata pendeat. Obiit Jun. 14. 1612.
* & Windsoræ sepultus est.

pere, lucrumque sibi facere concupivit, ita toto demum mundo exhibere non erubuit, Homo etenim summe ambitiosus, nec minus avarus, qui in adventu suo summas & amplissimas in Ecclesia Anglicana dignitates & promotiones devorasse, statimque & sine mora adipiscendas sibi proposuisset, ubi Regiam Majestatem sensim & per gradus quosdam procedere perspexisset, credulam ac umbratilem nescio quam de Salerniensi Archi-Episcopatu spem & promissionem, subdole Pontificia Arte, hoc est, veteratoria Gundelmoriana fraude, auribus suis insurratum reali suæ in Anglia promotioni prætulit. Quamvis redditus ejus annuus cum Decanali & Ordinis aureæ Periscelidis Registrali dignitate conjunctis ad quingentarum librarum summam & amplius excrevit, ad vomitum igitur redire cupiens, desiderium illud suum Domino Regi scriptis explicavit, & ut bona sua cum venia Romam proficisceretur enixe petiit, cui Petitioni, quamvis Rex clementissimus per omnia subscribere recusavit, attamen profectioni suæ minime obstitit ut bannitum vero & nunquam in Dominio suo reversurum, eum de regno suo amandavit. Hoc tantum pro Colophône adjiciens, Nebulo huc accessit, Nebulo illuc recedat.

Juxta quod mandatum circa festum Annuntiationis 1622. Bruxellas indeque Romam remeavit, ubi debitam simulationis & dissimulationis suæ mercedem reportavit, simulque ad exhibendum innatæ astutiæ, ac Tyrannidis Pontificiæ specimen spectandum, ansam præbuit. Et sic demum pro Mausolæo, quod fortasse in Phantasia post decessum suum ex hoc regno sibi fabricasset, in rogo, post decessum suum ex hac vita, cadaver ejus comburitur.

Decanus per 4 fere Annos, cui in Decanatū successit D. Beaumont, & in Canonicatū Th. Some. Credo equidem quod inter mundanos sapientissimos qui Versipellem hunc optime norunt indecisum habebatur, an quisquam sui Ordinis & loci subtiliori ingenio, clariori judicio, aut perspicaciori intellectu præditus fuit? Nemo tamen, existimo, tam insipidus unquam, qui leviori aut tam inani strophæ deceptus periit: Sed hoc à Domino, ut ratum faceret quod per Prophetam suum pronuntiavit, Peribit sapientia a sapientibus, & intellectus prudentibus abscondetur.

UPTON

UPTON, in Morton Hundred, Berkshire.

HIS was antiently the Seat and Inheritance of a Branch of the Family of Latton, of Latton, in North Wiltshire, who derive themselves from the House of Estotewille, or Stutville, a noble Race, so call'd, from a Borough of that Denomination in Upper Normandy, and they were formerly under that Name.

Of this House was William de Stutville, made Cardinal by Eugenius the 4th, in the Year of our Lord God 1439. He dy'd in the Year 1482.

These Stutvilles, after the Conquest, were Barons of Lydesdale Castle in Cumberland, created Earls of Yorkshire, (says Mr. Camden) and much fam'd in the Barons Wars for their Prowess, and large Possessions in the Counties also of Rutland, Lincoln, and Warwick; where they were planted at Monks-Kirby, afterwards given by John de Stutville to the Monks of Pipwell in Northamptonshire, for the Health of the Souls of his Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters, his own, and those of Hen. the 2d. and his Queen.

The same Author, in his Remains, sufficiently shews, That Surnames were first given for for Distinction of Familles, which afterwards descended to the eldest Son only, the rest taking their Names from the Lands or Possessions allotted for their Portions; and 'tis, at least, probable, that Walter de Latton (who appears, from unquestionable Records, to have been many Ages since planted in that Place with a plentiful Fortune) tho' he changed his Name on his removal, yet forgot not to take the Paternal Coat along with him, which has since continu'd in the Family thro' many Generations, and is still the Bearing of John Latton, Esq; of Esbur-Place in the County of Surrey; as it also is of the Stutvilles of Brinkley in Cambridgeshire, viz. Party per Pale, A. and S. a Saltier ingrailed Ermins, and Ermin counterchanged.

Omnibus Christi fidelibus præsens scriptum visuris vel audituris, Henricus permissione Divina Abbas Cirencestrensis, & ejusdem loci Conventus, salutem in Domino, Noverit Universitas vestra nos concessisse. Johan. de Latton, & Isabelle Uxori, ejusdem sub forma & conditione que sequitur subscripta, viz. Quelibet hebdomada, quamdiu vixerint simul, quatuor decem albos coronarios & novem Gallonas cerevisie, scil. quinque Gallonas cerevisie Conventualis, & quatuor de cerevisia Capellanorum & annum ferculum qualibet die de Coquina nostra, sicut libere servientes in die recipiunt de domo nostra, percipiend. itaque si dict. Isabella diutius supervixerit, statim post mortem dict. Joh. medietas omnium superius concessorum totaliter cessabit. Et pro dicta concessione predict. Joh. nobis & Ecclesie nostre totaliter remisit & de se & heredibus suis in perpetuam quietem, clamavit totum jus & cladium quod habuit vel aliquo modo habere potuit, cum reversione quacunque in terris & tenementis cum omnibus pertinentiis suis quas Gualterus, Pater predict. Johan. de nobis assignatas tenuit in Latton, & dictus Johan. & heredes sui dictas terras & tenementa nobis & Ecclesie nostre sine diminutione quacunque plene & integre warrantizabunt. Et si contingeret (quod absit) predictos Johannem & Isabellam a predict. warrantia quoquo modo deficere, vel in dict. tenementis aliquod juris vel elamii clamare seu vindicare, ex tunc, dicti Abbas & Conventus a prestatione omni premissarum absque calumpnia cujuslibet omnino cessabunt in perpetuum. In cujus rei Testimonium partes predict. huic script. indentato sigilla sua alternatim apposuerunt. Dat. Cirencestric in Fest. Purific. Beat. Marie, An. Regn. Regis Edw. Fil. Henr. tricesim. tertio.

Corrodii ver. Cop. Dat. 33 E. 1. An. 1305.
Abbat. Hen, Hamptonel.

This Indenture, in Consideration of all its Particularities, is (according to Sir Henry St. George, Garter, King at Arms) very rarely to be produced by any Family; and from the Date hereof, this John and Isabel retir'd from the World in their old Age, ending their Days in Religion.

In the College of Arms, London, is the following Record.

Milo de Morton, dedit omnes terras & tenementa in Chilton, Ricardo fili. Barth. de Hackburn. & Johan. Fil. Wilhelm. de Latton, 18 E. 2.

In the same Reign, in the Year of our Lord God, 1329. Wilhelmus de Latton settl'd himself at Upton beforemention'd, as appears by the Records in the Herald's Office, where they continu'd for the space of seven Generations.

He marry'd Joan, Daughter and sole Heir of Walter, Son and Heir of Walter, Son and Heir of William de Percy, from a younger Branch of the House of Northumberland, who (says Mr. Cambden) derive themselves in a direct Line, from the Emperor Charles the Great, in the Year of Christ 802.

She liv'd in the 14th Year of Edw. the Third,

The paternal Coat of this Walter was A. & Fusils in Fess S. taken from the Fusils formerly born by the Percy's before they were Earls of Northumberland, and this Coat was afterwards the Bearing of Latton for some Time, in Compliment to that Heiress, as appears by the Office of Arms, but they soon resum'd their former Coat of Stu. ville.

Amongst the Writings of the Family are also still to be discover'd the following: Manors, Lands and Tenement, which they were formerly Possessors of in this County only.

Up on,	Tilburst,	The Parso-
Chilton,	Childry,	nage of Han-
Blewbery,	Hackburn,	well.
Wantage,	Frilford,	The Tythes of
Sing,	Oke,	Lyford.
Lattons Down,	All Ox-street,	Draycot Park,
Fawley,	in Reading,	held from St.
Inglefield,	East Hanney,	John's Coll.
Shinfield,	East Hendred,	in Oxford for
Milford,	East Lockinge,	many Years
Ardington,	West Lockinge,	in the Fami-
Blewfields,	South Mare.	ly.

How many of these were Manors is not easily discovered at this distance of Time; the most of 'em seem to have been so.

John Latton, of Chilton, Berks, Esq; was High Sheriff of this County the 32d of the Queen.

The last Residence of this Family in Berkshire was at Kingston Bakepuze, in the Hundred of Oke, which Seat and Manors were purchas'd by

by John Latton, of Chilton, Esq; in the 22d of Hen. 8. in the Year of our Lord God 1542. and descended to William Latton his Son and Heir, in the 38th of the Queen, as by the following Inquisition.

Kalar sine extentus An. val. Maneriorum, ter. & tenementorum & ceter. quorumcumque in Comit. Berks, qua nup. fuere Johannis Latton, Armig. defunct. & que per fin. post mort. ejusd. Johannis cuidam Guiel. Latton, fil. & hered. suo descendant & descendere debeant in usu Possessione & reversione. Qui quidem Joh. Latton, Armig. ob. Octob. 16. An. Regni Domine Regin. 38 Wilhelm. Latton, ad tunc, plen. etat. viz. 22 An. Temp. mort. dicti Joh. Patris sui prout per inquisit. inde capt. apud Maidenhead, Com. Berks, 19 Maii, An. Reg. 13^o. plen. poterit apparere, &c.

Manerium de Kingston Ferrars, & Chartley, ac omnes ter. & tenementa nup. Domini Ferrars & Chartley, in Kingston, predict. tent. de Domina Regin. in capit. viz. per centessim. partem Feodi milit. & val. per An. 6l.

Manerium de Kingston Longville, tent. de Domina Regin. in capit. per servit. quartae partis unius feod. milit. val. per An. 100l.

Manerium de Kingston Bagpuze, scil. omnia Messuag. ter. & tenementa quondam Kingstons & Cliffs, ter. in Kingston Bagpuze, predict. nup. Quilters, tent. de Domina Regin. ut de Honore su. Leicestrens. in soccag. per fidelit. & An. Reddit. unius Rose Rubie & valor, per An. 10l. 19s.

These Lordships, with all the Appurtenances in the Parishes of Fifeild, and Netberton, with Newbridge, Gange, the Hams on the River Thames, a large Royalty of Fishing, and a Swan-Swannery (as appears by Records) seem by the Purchase Deeds, to have been of great Extent, and continu'd in the Family of Latton 128 Years before they removed into Surrey.

It likewise appears, by the Writings before cited, that of old they have had large Possessions also in the Counties hereafter specify'd, viz.

Oxfordshire,	Dorset,	Kent,
Glostershire,	Somerset,	Norfolk,
Hampshire,	Essex,	Suffolk, and
Devon,	Middlesex,	Surrey.

The Descent of the Family stands thus stated in the Heralds Office, excepting only the first, for which see Dugdale's Monasticon.

Of these 20 Generations 14 owe their Birth to this County, thro' a Tract of above 350 Years continuance therein; but how far upward the Wiltshire Line, with all the Matches and Alliances of the Family since, may be trac'd, is left to any future Historian of that County. I shall but hint in this Place, that from thence are descended not only the English Race, but also those of the Nsa's, a Town, and ancient Barony in the County of Kildare, and Province of Lempster in Ireland, who assert themselves to have been settled there from the Reign of King John, with which this of the English Descent seems to be concurrent, tho' through Distance, Time, and Usage, they now write their Name different.

June 1718. The Chief of this Family is now, Patrick Latin, Esq; seated at Moris Town, in the said County, who in the Year 1700. marry'd Fane, Daughter of William Alcock, of Clogh, in the County of Wexford, Esq; (sometime of the City of Dublin) by Fane, Daughter of Bramber, of Lancashire, and by her hath two Sons and six Daughters, viz. John, George, Fane, Begnot, Latin, &c.

In the middle Ile of the Church of Blewbery, in Berkshire, stands a raised Monument, whereon are the Figures cut in Brass, of a Man in Armor, on whose Surcoat are the Arms of Daunce, viz. Party per Pale, A. and O. a Fess undule. G. between 3 Lyons Heads erased of the same. Also a Woman, on the Right Side of whose Surcoat, are the foresaid Arms, and on the left are quarter'd those of Latton, Percy, Esbury and Sycheville, and underneath the following Epitaph.

Of your Charite pray for the Soul of Dame Alice Daunce, Daughter of Tho. Latton, Gent. late the Wife of Sir John Daunce, Bart. Councillor, and Envoy to General unto our Sovereign Lord King Hen. the Eighth, who deceased the 27th Day of Aug. in the Year of our Lord God, 1523. On whose Soul God sende Mercy. Amen.

Underneath are the Figures of 5 Sons and two Daughters, also two large Books chain'd to the Monument, viz.

At the Foot of this Tomb, on a Grave-stone, cut in Brass, is the Figure of a Man in Armor, between his two Wives, with this Inscription.

Here lyeth John Latton, late of Chilton, Esq; and Anne his Wife, which John dyed the xxixth of May, in the Year of our Lord God, M. CCCCX. LVII.

Under which are the Figures of 6 Sons and 9 Daughters cut in Brass.

William, Thomas, Anthony, John, Bartholomew, John, Alice, Eliz. Mary, Margaret, Dorothy, Fitzwith, Jane, Susan, Anne.

From another Grave-stone the Brass Plates are lost, but the Persons there interr'd were John Latton, of Chilton, Esq; and Agnes his Wife, Daughter and Heir of John de Estbury, this Scrap only remaining, viz.

..... Lady, and there doe their Offering, and say a Pater, whatever their Devotion shall be

Over this Monument are the Coats of Latton, Estbury, Percy, and Sycheville plac'd singly, and in this Order, viz. Estbury in the 2d Place.

Also the Figure of a Man in Armor between his two Wives, under each of which are the Figures of two Sons and three Daughters, with the Coats of Latton, Percy, Estbury, Sycheville, quarterly.

In a Chapel, on the South Side of the Church at Kingstone Bagpuze, Berks, over a Vault of the Family of Latton, stands a rais'd Monument, over which, in the Glass Window, are quarterly the Arms following.

1. Party per Pale A. & S. a Saltier engrail'd Ermins, and Ermin counterchang'd by the Name of Latton.

2. A. 3 Fusils in Fess, S. by the Name of Percy.

3. Ermin 3 Cross Bows in Pale O. by the Name of Chivacher.

4. A. 3 Bends Wavy, S. by the Name of Esbury.

In the Hall Windows, &c. of the Manor House adjoining, are the forementioned Coats quarterly, and also those of the Heireffes following.

John Latton, of Kingston, Berks, Esq; marry'd Dorothy, eldest Daughter and Co-Heir of Oliver Wellsborn, of East Hanny, Berks, Esq; by his first Wife, T. H. 8.

Crest.

On a Wreath of his Collars is an Indian Woman naked down to the middle, coup. fronting with her Arms strutting, incircled with a Glory of Peacock's Feathers proper.

Sir David Williams, Judge of the Common Pleas, T. Eliz. mention'd by Mr. Ashmole, was second Husband to this Co-Heiress, Dorothy Wellsborn, Relict of John Latton, Esq; of this Place, who both lie bury'd in the Vault specify'd.

Martha, the other Co-Heiress, was Wife of William Blomer, Esq; of Hatharp in Gloucestershire, as particularly mention'd in that Visitation, and these two Sisters went away with the Inheritance of Margery, Daughter and Heir of Tho. Poure, Esq; of Blechington in Oxfordshire.

This Family of Wellsborn, now quite extinct, deriv'd themselves from the Plantagenets, by Sym. Montfort, Earl of Leicester, who marry'd Eleanor, second Daughter of King John. He was slain, with his eldest Son Henry, at the Battle of Ewigham, in the Reign of Hen. 3. 1265. Almaric the second Son, was a Monk, and afterwards fell valiantly in the Holy Wars. Symon and Guy two more of his Sons, fled with their Mother into France, and Richard the 5th Son, remain'd in England conceal'd under the Name of Wellsborn, and gave rise to this Family here mention'd, of which speaks Cambden.

This Sym. Montfort, the Earl, had an elder Brother nam'd Peter, whose Posterity dwindl'd into a spurious Line; this only, which chang'd its Name, continuing untainted, as reported by the Family.

John Latton, of Kingston, Berks, marry'd Katherine, second Daughter, and Co-Heir of Sir Thomas Hamon, of Kent, Knt. 19 Jacob.

This was a triple Heiress, her Mother also being a Co-Heiress of Martin of Dorsetshire, who was a Co-Heiress of Nicholas Wadham, Esq; of Somersetshire, who founded the College of that Name in Oxford, in the Year of our Lord God, 1613.

This Manor of Reyndlesha, before mention'd, was the antient Seat of Redwald and Swideline, Kings of the East Angles.

*The last Will and Testament of Mrs. Anne Latton, one of the Daughters of John Latton, late of Chilton, in the County of Berks, Esq; who departed this Life
 the*

In the Name of God Amen, The Sixth Day of November, 1584. and in the Twenty Sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady Elizabeth, by the Grace of God
 Queen of England, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. I ANNE LATTON, one of the Daughters of John Latton, late of Chilton in the County of Berks, Esq; deceas'd, being Sick in Body, but in good and perfect Remembrance (Thanks be given to God) do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in Manner and Form fol-

following; That is to say, renouncing, revoking, and annihilating first and foremost all former Wills heretofore by me made either by Word or Writing.

And principally, I bequeath my Soul to Almighty God, my heavenly Father, surely and most stedfastly believing through the Merits of his dear Son's Passion only to be saved; and my Body I render to the Earth from whence it came, with a desire to be buried in the Parish Church of Blewbury, as near unto the Place (as may be) where my late Father lieth buried.

Item, My Mind and Will is, That my Father's and Mother's Will, and the Will of my Brother Thomas Latton, be perform'd and fulfill'd to all Intents, and true Meaning, and in such Sort as any of us by Law, or Right, ought to have perform'd and fulfill'd, and by them or me, at the Hour of our Deaths, not done.

Item, That whereas my late Brother, Thomas Latton, deceased, did by his last Will and Testament will me, being his Executrix, to lend unto the poor Occupiers of Abingdon, Newbury and Wantage; and to every of these Towns, Twenty Pounds a peice, upon sufficient Assurance for the Payment thereof at the Year's end without any Gain, which now my Mind and Will is, shall continue and remain from Year to Year among them for ever; and for the which my Executors here under named shall take Bond for the repaying and lending thereof, in Manner and Form as is declared in my said Brother's Will, and that they shall nominate and appoint those poor Occupiers who shall have the same Money.

Item, I give to the poor Inhabitants of Wantage Parish Twenty two Pounds of lawful Money of England, to be deliver'd unto them within five Years next after my decease, by the Discretion of my Executors. Furthermore, I give to the same poor Inhabitants Twenty Bushels of Wheat, and Twenty Bushels of Malt yearly, during the space of three Years next after my decease.

Item, I give to the poor Inhabitants of Upton Twenty Shillings.

Item, I give to the poor and needy Inhabitants of Harwel Ten Pounds.

decease, Twenty Weather Sheep a piece; and to every of them one Mourning Coat, and one Cow.

Item, I give unto Johane Shyppreve my Servant, one Crimson Cross, and one Christening Sheer, and all my whole Hay and Wood at Henred, and Three Roother Beasts, and my Pewter and Brass, and the one half of all my Household Stuff in Henred, excepting such thereof, as shall be otherwise disposed and given by this my last Will and Testament.

Item, I give unto her more, the first Crop of Hay at Lynsey yearly, coming and growing from our Lady Day, but no Lammes during two whole Years.

Item, I give unto her more, Twenty Pounds of lawful English Money.

Item, I will and bequeath unto my Servant Richard Knapp, after her two Years ended, shall have, and enjoy to him, and his Assigns, the whole Crop, and Ground of Lynsey and Roebesey, with all Commodities and Appurtenances thereto belonging, and appertaining, yearly, and from time to time, unto the End, Expiration, and Determination of one Indenture of Lease with one Arthur Hide, Gentleman, now hath and holdeth of me of the Farm of Wantage aforesaid.

Item, I will and bequeath that Johane Shyppreve, my said Servant, shall quietly and peaceably have, hold, possess, and enjoy my House and Lands at Henred, wherein I now dwell, with the Garden and Backsides to the same House belonging, for, and during the space of Seven whole Years next after my decease, keeping,

ing the same House, Tenant-like, in all necessary Reparations, and paying therefore Six Shillings yearly to my Executors, so that the same Johane shall not do any Act or Thing that shall be prejudicial and hurtful to the Execution of this my last Will and Testament.

Item, My Mind and Will is, that my Executors shall appoint Twelve Men to carry my Body to the Church to be buried, and every of them to have a Mourning Coat for his Pains; and further, I will that my Executors shall bestow Twenty Mourning Coats, or Gowns, upon such of my Kindred and Friends, as shall resort unto my Burial, to be given according to their good Discretions.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my well beloved Friend, Mr. Arthur Hide, of Hardwell, in the County of Berks, the one Half of my Lease and Farm of Wantage, alias Wantinge, in the said County of Berks, to have and to hold the same, one Half of the Manor or Farm of Wantage, unto the said Arthur Hide, his Heirs, Executors and Assigns, for, and during all such Term and Time as I have yet to come, and unexpired in the same Indenture.

Item, I give unto my well beloved Servant Richard Knapp, and to his Heirs, Executors and Assigns, the other half Part and Portion of the said Lease and Farm, or Manor of Wantage aforesaid, to have and to hold the same half Part and Portion, with all, and singular the Appurtenances thereto belonging, to him and them during the Time and Term of Years to come, and to be determined in the same Indenture of Lease mentioned.

Item, I will that Richard Knapp shall have the keeping of the Lease of the Farm of Wantage, till determination and end thereof, with all other of my Writings.

Item, I give and bequeath more unto the same Richard Knapp, one great Broad Chest in the Parlor in Henred; one great Brass Pot standing at Smith's in Chilton.

Item, I give unto him more Twenty Weather Sheep, one Cow, and one Mourning Coat.

Item, I give unto Johane Shyppreve my Servant, my Grey Nag.

Item, I give unto my Servant Elizabeth Shyppreve, one Feather Bed, and all Appurtenances thereto belonging.

Item, I give unto my Cousin Elizabeth Hearne my Woollen Apparel that I have used to wear; also I give unto her one Feather Bed, and all that belongs thereto.

Item, I will and bequeath unto her more, Twenty Pounds of lawful Money of England.

Item, I give unto Arthur Hearne, her Son, Twenty Weather Sheep.

Item, I give and bequeath unto John Hearne, Thomas Hearne, and the said Arthur Hearne, Five Pounds a piece, to be paid unto them when they severally shall attain to the Age of 21 Years.

Item, I give unto the said Elizabeth Hearne, my Cousin, Twenty Weathers.

Item, I give unto Agnes Freeman, of Upton, Five Quarters of Barley.

Item, I give unto those Women that have watched, and taken Pains about me in this my Sicknes, 6*l.* 13*s.* 3*d.* to be bestowed upon them them according to the Discretion of my Executors. But my Mind and Will is, that they shall be accompted none of them which I have already otherwise remembred in this my present last Will and Testament.

Item, I give unto the said Johane Shyppreve all, and singular, my wearing Linnen Apparel.

Item, I will and bequeath that Richard Tall and his Wife shall have Two Kine going in, and upon the Farm Grounds of Wantage, after the End and Term of Mr. Arthur Hide's Lease, first mentioned, until the Expiration of my Original Lease.

The Residue of all my Goods, Chattels, and other Things whatsoever, as well moveable, as unmoveable, as also, all my Lands, Tenements, Rents, Reversions, Remainders, Annuities, and all other Profits, Titles, Hereditaments whatsoever, not by these Presents given nor bequeathed, devise, will, and bequeath unto Arthur Hide, Gentleman, and to Richard Knapp, and to their Heirs, Executors, and Assigns, for ever, without Impeachment of Waste; which Arthur and Richard by these Presents I do make and ordain to be my full and whole Executors of this my present last Will and Testament. And whereas there is mortgag'd to me for Twenty Years, or thereabouts, yet to come, the Fee Simple of certain House and Land, and other Hereditaments within the County of Berks, in East Henred, there my good Will, and special Meaning is (in Consideration they, the said Arthur Hide, and Richard Knapp, shall, and will take upon them the Execution of this my last Will and Testament, and will truly and faithfully in the Fear of God perform the same accordingly, and according to the Trust and Confidence I repose in them, and in either of them, that they the said Arthur and Richard shall have and enjoy all such Benefits, Profits, Commodities and Advantages, as in any manner of wise may, might, should or ought, or in time to come shall, and may accrue or redound to me, my Heirs or Assigns, by Reason of any such mortgaged Land (that is to say) the one Half thereof unto the said Arthur Hide, and to his Heirs and Assigns, and the other half Part and Portion of the same unto the said Richard Knapp, and to his Heirs and Assigns for ever.

And further, I do earnestly request, nominate and appoint, and make my trusty and well beloved Friend, Mr. Thomas Foorde, Doctor of the Civil Law, Hugh Hide, of Letcom, Gent. John Legatt, of Hornchurch Hall, Gent. Thomas Knapp, of Chilton, Edward Seenie, of London, and Francis Yates, of Lyford, Esq; to be my Overseers of this my present last Will and Testament; and I do give unto every of them for their Pains to be taken on this behalf, Ten Pounds a piece, besides all other Charges and Expences which they, or any of them shall lay out, or expend in and about the necessary Affairs, of this my present last Will and Testament.

Provided always, that my true and faithful Meaning is, That if the said Arthur Hide and Richard Knapp, whom I have made my Executors, as before is mentioned, shall fortune to depart this World before the Probation of this my last

last Will and Testament, or else shall refuse, and do not prove the same within Three Months next after my decease, that by Order and Course of the Law they may be thereunto admitted, and not restrained, or denied and kept from the true Ministering and Execution, and executing thereof, that then my Mind and Will is, That my Overseers above-named, or so many of them as will take upon him or them the said Executorship, by Virtue hereof shall have full Power and Authority to prove the same, my last Will and Testament, whom also in this Case, by these Presents, I do make and ordain my Executor, or Executors, and I give unto him or them, or to such, or so many of them as shall take upon him or them the Probate and Execution of this my last Will and Testament, all such Legacies, Benefits, Commodities and Advantages as I before have given, granted, and bequeathed unto the said Arthur Hide and Richard Knapp, by Virtue of their Executorship, and not otherwise, of any Lands, Tenements, Rents, Annuities, Goods, Cattle and Chattles, as before is remembred, any Act, Statute, Provision, this present Will, or any other Thing or Ordinance to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding. In witness whereof, I the said ANNE LATTON, have to this my present last Will and Testament put my Seal and Hand the Day and Year first above written. This present Testament, and last Will, was sealed, subscribed, and deliver'd by the Hands of Mistress ANNE LATTON, to her Executors, the Day of the Date hereof, in the Presence of Hugh Hide, Robert Hutchens, and John Trewlock.

Me-

Memorandum, That the within named ANNE LATTON, the Two and Twentieth Day of November, in the * Twenty Seventh Year of the Queen's Majesty's Reign that now is, hath confessed and affirmed before these Witnesses under written, that this present Will is her only last Will and Testament; and that if there be any Things by her granted, and unwritten in the same Will, she doth absolutely revoke the same to be none of her Will, except those Things which she doth deliver with her own Hands. By me, Richard Welbeck, John Webb, and Lawrence Rushbrooke, and others.

In Pages 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, &c. of the Second Volume of this Work, is a large Account of the Manors in the Parish of EAST HENDRED, to which may be added the following Remarks made by a Gentleman of Worth and Honour, whose Modesty has forbid the mention of his Name, viz. one of the Hendreds gave to the Abbey of Abington two Abbots, viz. Robert de Henreth, who became Abbot in, or soon after, 1221, and died in 1234. and Richard de Hendred, who became Abbot of that House in 1262, and died 1289.

The Manor of BECKET, likewise in the Parish of Sbriwenham, near Farington, in this County, lately Part of the Possessions of Major Wildman, and at present belonging to Barington Shute, Esq; is also held of this Manor by the yearly Rent of Four Pounds.

To what is said of the second Manor, called the ABBY Manor, may be added, " King Henry the 8th, by his Letters Patents bearing Date August the 26th, A°. Regni 36. Christi 1544. bestowed this Manor upon Henry Norris, Esq; afterwards Lord Norris, from which Family it was alienated 13 Jac. A. D. 16 $\frac{1}{2}$. March the 20th, and Sold to one Finton, who transferr'd it to the then Earl of Kelly, who Sold it to Sir Peter Van Lore, Baronet, of whom William Eyston, Esq; Bought it Feb. 10th, 20° Jacobi, i. e. A. D. 16 $\frac{1}{2}$.

It appears by King Henry the First's Charter (without any Date) in the 2d Volume of the Monasticon, page 957. that the Alien Priory of Frampton in Dorsetshire, had 7 Hides of Land in Hein-

Heinreth, which I take to be the whole, or part of the Manor, belonging to Edward Sherwood, Esq; called the Manor of FRAMPTON; afterwards it became part of the Possessions of the Abby of Abington, but whether it came to the said Abby by Exchange, Sale, or Gift, I cannot tell. But I find in some Writings, that it was in the Possession of the Crown, Anno Hen. 8. 31 Christi, 1539. and that it was granted by the said King Henry the 8th to John Winchcombe, of Noke, in Com. Oxon. Esq; whose Grandson, Benedict Winchcombe, sold it, 44 Eliz. 1602. to John Sherwood, Esq; Great Grand Father to Edward Sherwood, Esq; the present Possessor of this Manor.

I find the Knights of St. John of Hierusalem had formerly some Possessions in East Hendred, which I almost fancy, is the MANOR that now belongs to New College in Oxford, but of this I have no certainty.

To the 5th Manor, called the Manor of ARCHES, may be added to what is said page 310. of the 2d Volume, " That this Manor belonged in the Year 1171. to one William de Crofbecy, and from that Family it came to the Turbervilles, one whereof, named Jeffery, bestowed some Lands in Hendred upon the Priory of the Canons Regular of Pogbale in Com. Berks, as appears by King Henry the 3d's Charter in the 2d Volume of the Monasticon, pag. 266, 267. From the Turberville's it descended to the Arches, by William de Arche's marrying Amisia, the Daughter of Sir Richard de Turberville, Knight; which Amisia, by Deed dated the 19th of May, Anno Christi, 1323. Edw. 2di. 16°. grants to William de " Arches,

“ Arches their Son, all her Manors in the “ Town of East Henreith, with the Advowson “ of the Chapel [of St. Amand and St. John “ Baptist] there; to hold to the said William,
 “ and the Heirs of his Body. And after it had
 “ Arches, it came into the Family of the Eyston’s “ in or about the Year of our Lord 1381, by “ William Eyston, of Isleworth, in Com. Middle- “ sex, marrying Isabelle, the Daughter of John “ Stow, by Maude his Wife, who was sole “ Daughter and Heiress to William Rawlin de “ Arches. This Manor of Arches was former“ ly held of the Prior of Frampton, and at pre“ sent of Edward Sherwood, Esq; as Lord of “ the Manor of Frampton in East Hendred.

There is an old Chapel of Ease at Sparsholt Court, which is the Seat of the late William Wise- man, and lyes between the two Hendreds.

There is no Doubt to be made, but that there was at Hendred, (before it fell to decay) a Free School, since there is one at Hanwell, which never was a Market Town, nor ever so considerable.

Some MONUMENTS omitted in their proper Places are inserted here.

Here lyeth the Body of MARY WHITE, the Wife of FRANCIS WHITE, of Fyfield, Esq; the Daughter of RICHARD SOUTHBY, of Carlswell, in the County of Berks. She departed this Life the 22d of Oct. in the Year of our Lord, 1688. and in the 31 Year of her Age.

*Since Virtue can't defend us from the Grave,
And all this hard, but equal Fate must have;
What's then our Hope, but this, to rise with him,
Who triumph'd over Death, yet dy'd for Sin?
Such was the Fate of Her, who now we trust,
Has reach'd the glorious Mansions of the Just.
Then, Reader, spare thy Tears, prepare for to inherit
The everlasting Rest of this departed Spirit,
Whose righteous Footsteps if thou trace, and so canst die,
Dread not the silent Tomb, but fix thy Thoughts on high.*

In the Chancel (kept in Repair by the Family of Perrotts) on a fair white Marble Mural Monument, is this Inscription.

*Near his beloved Wife, and his two Sons, WILLIAM and CHARLES PERROTT, of grateful Memory, lies the Body of JAMES PERROTT, of North Leigh, in the County of Oxon, Gent. whose Piety, and Integrity of Life, made him accepted of God, and approved of Men :
And of his Charity, this Parish, and the Parish of North Leigh, will always be a Witness; for the Poor of both which Places he left a yearly Provision. He died in the LXXXVIIIth.
Year of his Age, Decemb. 7 1687. and here waites for a Reward of these,

On a Grave-stone, underneath, is this Inscription.

JAMES PERROTT, GENT.
died December the 8th. 1687.
in the 88th Yeare
of his Age.

In SUNNING Church, mentioned

On a Grave-stone is this Inscription.

ANTONIUS ENGLEFYLD,

Puer admodum venustus,

Obiit Mense Junii, 1683.

Vix Annos sex natus.

Hic sparge Flores,

Sparge breves Rosas.

OLD WINDSOR.

After the First Paragraph, page the 43d of the III<sup>d</sup> Volume, insert,

In this Place was an antient Seat belonging to the Family of the Michel's; and there is also another belonging to the Family of the Lord Viscount Weymouth.

In the Chancel, on a fair Marble Monument, about Ten Feet in breadth at the Foundation, and Twenty Feet in height, inclos'd with an Iron Rail, and fix'd to the North Wall, are the following Inscriptions at full length, in page 43, 44, 45, 46, &c.

In the middle of the lower Slab of Black Marble, supported by Pilasters and Scrowls, are the Figures of a Man in a Gown, and his Wife in her usual Habit, and near them the following Verses.

A faithful Husband and his loving Wife, &c.

And

And so on to page the 45th, line the 6th, where (leaving out all the intervening Inscriptions to page the 48th, line the 16th) instead of the Paragraph, On a Fair Monument, &c. go on thus,

The Inscriptions in a double Column, on the upper White Marble Table, supported by Pilasters of the same, with a Foliage of several Escotcheons, and a Capital, with a large Shield of several Coats of Arms, are as follows,

P. M. S.

and so on to page the 51st, line the 9th, then add as follows,

In the Church Yard, joining to the Chancel Wall, is a Vault belonging to the Family of the Michels, cover'd with a Black Marble Tomb-stone.

*An ACCOUNT of Mr. JOHN BLAGRAVE, the famous Mathe-matician, who lived at Reading in
Com. Berks, in the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, and King James I.
(mentioned in page 359. of the Second Volume.)*

 HE was noted in his Time for an excellent Mathematician, and wrote several Books on that Subject; one was called his Mathematical Jewel, and also another of Dialling. He lieth buried in St. Mary Church in Reading, his Monument being by himself ordered whilst living. Amongst many of his Virtues, this one was observable, a generous Love for all his Kindred: He made also such a Will, as surprized all the Gentlemen of the Long Robe, so exact, so mathematical it was. Take a small Testimony also of his Kindness to his Relations. He had Three Brothers, Anthony, Edward, and Alexander, to whose Sons, his Nephews, he gave very liberally in his Life. And now observe what Provision his Will makes for his Kindred to be begotten gotten by the said Nephews. " Item, I give

 " unto the Children of the Sons of my Brothers,
 " 50 Pound a piece, to be paid them at the " Age of 26 Years, according to their Senio" rity," which said 50 Pound a Piece has paid near 80 Persons born after his decease, of his Second Cousins.

Another Act of Bounty was to the Maids of Reading. You are to Note that there are three Parish Churches, and he doth devise that each Church Warden should send on Good Friday one virtuous Maid that has lived five Years with her Master. All three Maids appear at the Town Hall before the Mayor and Aldermen, and cast Dice ; she that throws most has Ten Pounds put in a Purse, and she is to be attended with the other two that lost the Throw. The next Year come again the two Maids, and one more added to them. He orders in his Will, that each Maid should have three Throws before she loseth it, and if she has no luck in the three Years, he orders that still new Faces may come and be presented.

On the same Good Friday he gives eighty Widows Money to attend, and orders ten Shillings for a good Sermon, and so he wisheth well to all his Country Women. It is lucky Money, for I never heard but the Maid that had the ten Pounds, suddenly had a good Husband.

This Account I had from Mr. . . . Blagrove, Bookseller, at the Bear in St. Paul's Church Yard, who is descended from him (or of that Kin)
An. 1690.

Note, That the Legacy given by Mr. John Blagrave to his Kindred, was a Lease of 99 Years; the Time expired but at Midsummer, 1690. All the Kindred was paid, and the Inheritance of the said Estate went to Mr. Daniel Blagrave, Counsellor at Law, lately deceased. The Lands were at Southcot near Reading. The Money paid to the Maids, is out of Lands settled for that use at Swallowfield in this County.

A LETTER * *from Mrs. Dionysia
Fitz-Herbert, to Mr. Rouse, Head Keeper of the Bodleian Library in Oxford, giving an Account of a Vision, with her Explication of it.*

 HIS wonderful Sight was seene at Almsbury in Wiltshire; also at † Shirman in Barkeshire, or two Miles from thence, in 1615. the next full of the Moone after Michelmess Day, the Moone being that Night at the full, and as wee gest about tow Houers, or more, high, nere eight or nine a Cloke at Night, it had a mighty Cloude round about it, as spacious as a Court;
 but round in Compass, and overthwit it, to the utmost Bounds of it, a Crosse in Forme, just as the Crof in Couleurs of Eengland, but so shining bright, as the Moone being in the midst, and center of it, could not possible bee discerned from it but by a round Body apearin in the comes of the Crose; and although the Moone stoode in the midst of a Cloude as blake as Darknes it self, yet did it shine as bright as if it bine the clearest part of Heaven, the Firmament being at that Tyme also exceeding cleare and faire. At the upper end of Crosse towards Heaven came out a round Cloude so bigge as a Raine-bow, of the bignes of a Hand-bow might compass like a Coronet; the which a Rainebow did the brightest and clearest of Couloure as possible could be seene. The Ends towards the North and South had strems of Light running backe again towards the Moone, but the end towards the Earth had nothing at all; and although wee were continually coming and going, for as I think, the space of two Houers, in which it appeared, yet could none discern how it vanished away, so suddenly it vanish't, so suddenly was it gone; nether was ther any Alteration in it at all, but stood still in the same Forme and Fation all that Tyme.

I have ever thought, from the first apering of this wonderful Sine, that the Full Moone in it figured forth the Estat of the Church now nere her fullnes; the round and mighty blake Cloud that enveroned it, the Afflictions and universale Troubles that shall besete her on all Sids in this last Tymes, as our Lord Jesus hath forewarned in the Holy Scripturs.

The litle Cloud crowned with the Rainebow, that God will assuredly remember his Holy Covenant and Promise to his Church, and give it a most glorious and certine Victory over all Affliction and Trouble whatsoever, signify'd by that bright shining and triumphant Crosse.

That the Moone and Crosse making one intire Body, shew how conceparable the Crosse is annexed to the Church, yet shall it at last bring fourth to it a most exilent and an eternal waite of Glory.

That the Stremes of Light turning bake from the Ends of the Croſs towards the Mone, as I think, ſignifie from what Parts of the World God will raiſe ſome Help and Aide to his Church, untill by the glorious Coming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt all her Calamityes ſhall have a bleſſed and moſt happy end.

The Reaſons moveing me thus to think are theſe.

Our Lord Jeſus Chriſt giveth us moſt certine Warning of Signs in this very kind before his imanedent coming to Judgment. Ther ſhall bee, ſaith hee, Signes in the Sunne, and in the Moone, and in the Stars, Troble among the Notion with Preplectie — That it is ordinary among Devits to rake the Monne as an Embleme of the Church, in reſpect of her often Changes, and for that is ſayd, ſhe receiveth all her Light and Beauty from the Sonne, as the Church from the Sonne of Rightiouſneſſe, Chriſt Jeſus. How frequent it is in Scriptuer to take Clouds and Darkneſſe for Trubulation, and all manner of Afflictions. I nede not write the lamentable Calamities of the Tyme, becauſe the Rainebow is a Sinne of God's Favour and Covenant, and ſete in the Firmament by God himſelf, to remember him of his Covenant; alſo Chriſt Jeſus, the Angel of this, is deſcribed in the Rainebow deſcending doune from Heaven, clothed with a Cloud, and the Rainebow upon upon his Head. That the Cross is a Sine of of Victory ever, Saint Paul shewes us in the Person of Christ Jesus himself, in that having spoyled Principalities and Powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in the same Cross. And although the Cross bee often taken for Affliction, yet in this, even the bloody Cross appearing so glorious bright and resplendant, dos undoubtedly betoken and fortell Light and Deliverance to the Church, as that Cross, so famous in Ecclesiastical History, appearing to the great Constantine before his notable and most triumphant Victory, wherewith hee ended the ten bloody Persecutions, and the Calamities of the Primitive Church.

If any mervile that this Sine being scene divers Yeres agoe, why now, rather then all this Tyme it comes to bee taken notice of? I answer in a Word, That the lamentable Condition of the Christian World at this Tyme, 1633. is able to awaken the Memory of so strange and notable a Thing as this was.

DIONYS. FITZHERBERT.

According to an Act passed not long since concerning Popish Recusants, &c. all such were obliged to enter their Estates to be double taxed, and among the rest, Mr. Englefield, of Englefield, mentioned page 13. of the 1st Volume, entered his with the following Preamble.

To the Clerk of the Peace of the County of Berks, or his Deputy.

Desire you to register my Christian and I Sirname, and real Estate, pursuant to the Act of Parliament here under-mention'd, in the following Words. That by re-gistring pursuant to the late Act of Parliament made in the second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King GEORGE, intitl'd,
An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and real Estates, I may not contract upon my Parents, or the Religion I profess, the Odium of being guilty of those mischievous Principles in the said Act mentioned, and commonly imputed to those they call Papists, I Henry Englefield do declare, That I am, by the Grace of God, an English Catholick, and as such, believe that it is my Duty to be actively Obedient where I can without Offence to God, and passively where I cannot, to whatsoever Government God permits to come over me; and that Non-Resistance in all Cases is one of the Characteristick Marks of a Christian; and that therefore I would willingly take an Oath of Fidelity to King GEORGE: But inasmuch as the real Presence of the Body and Blood of our Saviour in the Sacrament of the Eucharist, was always believed by the Holy Catholick Church, maintained ever since the Reformation by many of the most Orthodox Reformed Divines of the Church

Church of England, fully asserted in the Church of England Catechism, and plainly express'd in the Holy Scriptures ; and since the Ten Commandments of God fully and absolutely forbid Perjury ; and most Divines, even since the Reformation, teach, that to swear to a Fact that that we don't know, or doubt the Truth of, altho' it should prove to be true, is Perjury ; I cannot take the Test and Abjuration Oaths enjoyned by Acts of Parliament, whatsoever I suffer. And with this Protestation, lest I should be thought to be obliged by the said Act to Register, I farther declare, that I am possess'd of all that, &c.

* MARMORA OXONIENSIA ex Arundellianis aliisque conflata. Recensuit & perpetuo Commentario explicavit Humphredus Prideaux Ædis Christi Alumnus. Appositis ad eorum nonnulla Seldeni & Lydiati Annotationibus. Accessit Sertorii Ursati Patavini de notis Romanorum Commentarius, Oxon. 1676. Fol.

erit,

Ara Romana votiva non ita pridem effossa Cestria, Inscriptio sic habet in lapide præsens ad literam, & hanc ipsam literarum formam. Manifesta est Ara, cavamen habens in summo, seu cotylam quandam concavam, quæ continebant ignem, quo thus incendebatur in sacrificando. Lapis affabre factus, & exsculptus est in Antiquam, sed elegantem formam, quæ hic non repræsentatur. Lapis hic effossus est integer & infractus, Anno Domini 1653°. in platea Urbis Cestria, quæ vulgo the Forest Streete appellatur, per occasionem defodiendæ cellæ Promptuariæ, in domo cujusdam Richardi Tyrer, citra portam Urbis Orientalem, ubi ad profunditatem ulnarum supra quam duarum per tot sæcula demissus in terra delituisse: Mihi forte fortuna isthac eunti significabat aliquis, operarios magnum illic effodisse lapidem, cui videbantur aliquot insculptæ literæ. Statim accurri & aspectu primo Romanum esse Monumentum deprehendi; Postridie reversus Inscriptionem accuratius observavi, & penitius eruere conatus integram perlegi; descriptamque in chartula mecum asportavi: deinde post aliquot dies rogatus ab amicis, & rem ratus haud indignam aliqua Commentatione, sumpsi calamum & sensum meum super isthac inscriptione in iis quæ sequuntur, conscripsi. Lapis adhuc manet erectus in horto prædictæ Domus cum inscrip-

tionē suā conspiciendus *. Mos erat non infrequens apud Romanos, præsertim Optimates & dignitate præstantiores, ut quando quis grande negotium aliquod, & idem arduum, difficile & periculosum, susciperet, vel gravi aliquo & inextricabili malo deprehensus premeretur; is votum solenne supplex Jovi nuncuparet, ut si captis ille propitius aspiraret sælicemque successum largiretur, vel si laboranti divinitus auxiliaretur, & è præsentī periculo cælitus, velut ἀπὸ μηχανῆς eruere, liberare dignaretur, aram ipsi strueret, erigeret, statueret ad memoriam accepti cælestis beneficii perpetuandam.

I. Posita videtur & dicata hæc Ara per hunc Titum Elupium Galerum, fortasse liberatum è bellicis nuperi prælii periculis, & ob victoriam partam, qui cum esset gubernator Romani præsidii in Urbe Cestriā, Primipilus Legionis, & forte per subitum aliquem & inopinatum incussum Britannorum, tunc rebellium, ad pugnam evocaretur imparatus & impar, absente tunc temporis Majori parte Legionis, & alibi res administrante, cogereturque cum exigua manu, &

paucis aliquot cohortibus, quibus tunc Urbem hanc solummodo tuebatur, pugnam inire cum hostibus nimis multitudine superioribus. In hoc rerum statu, & in tanto discrimine constitutus, ante commissum inæquale prælium, in fronte suarum Turmarum stans vel insidens equo conspicuus, in cælum sublatis & oculis & manibus, alta voce pronuntiavit ista, vel consimilia.

Quod votum postea, fusis, fugatis, & victis præter spem & expectationem in ea pugna Britannis, Elupius iste reversus in Urbem victor & incolumis, hanc Aram statuens, & in eâ Thure incenso Jovi sacrificans adimplevit inscriptionem enim cum aliqua Paraphrasi sic lego.

TANARO] Quod neque Latinum vocabulum ullum est, neque Græcum, quantum ipse memini ; hic usurpatur Epitheton speciale, & procul dubio
Bri-

Britannicum vetus Jovi tributum. Ut enim alias Hammon Olympius & Capitolinus a variis locis, ubi colebatur, dictus est; ita variae gentes etiam variis Epichetis ab operibus ejus maxime insignibus utique desumptis eum adornabant: A Græcis audiebat Zeús Ἠερλαῖος, & sic olim Germani veteres eum sua lingua Tunder apellabant, & quid ni? Sic etiam Britanni veteres eum sua lingua Tanar apellaverint, quod idem significaret, Tonantem. Et quid ni etiam Romani, qui cum inter Britannos hic egissent per multos annos, hoc Epitheton Britannicum in linguæ suæ formam, & in hunc usum assumpserint? Romani enim nimiam quâdam religione, seu nimis cautâ superstitione potius, colere solebant Deos earum Gentium quas vicissent. Nempe ut sic omnes Deos, quotquot ubique terrarum invenirentur, sibi conciliarent propitios, & haberent imperio suo favorabiles: Idcirco licet Jovem haberent cum aliis Gentibus communem Deum, hoc tamen Epitheton Britannicum, ut fortassis hoc in loco magis illis gratum & acceptum, usurparunt. Et hanc meam opinionem prius conceptam mihi plene confirmarunt in Urbe Cestriæ degentes aliquot Cambro Britanni sive Walli, quos cum seorsim interrogarem, quodnam in linguæ suæ vocabulum significaret Tonitru, singuli respondebant mihi Tanara. Sed & vocabulum ipsum (Tanara) in Wallica lingua, quæ fuit Britannica vetus, & in usu Romanorum temporibus, etiam hodie significat ignem subitaneum sive Fulgetrum: Et in Wallico Dictionario Tanar redditur Tonitru.

fidii in hac Urbe. Cum hoc sit ultimum vocabulum in ea linea desculptum & (A) similis tam prope contingat ipsam marginem in lapidis tabula, & non restaret locus vel minimum spacium ulterius necesse erat contrahi, quod signatur per transversum istum ictum caracteristicum in vertice τ⁸ N. hoc me torquebat aliquandiu & hærebam in luto, donec consultis Authoribus, a duobus Herodiano & Dione Cassio mihi satisfactum est; Herodianus etiam libro tertio affirmat Britanniam fuisse dispartitam ἰς δύο ἡγεμονίας (i. e.) in duas Præfecturas, sive Gubernationes, hoc enim vocabulum Græcum feret. In quem Herodiani locum vir doctus & multæ lectionis Author Commentarii in Itinerarium Antonini, affirmat alterum Gubernatorem constitutum Eboraci in Britannia inferiori cum legione sexta: Gubernatorem alterum fuisse collocatum Cestrie in Britannia superiori cum legione vicesima, quæ Valens, & Victrix appellata est. Hoc ipsum asserit planissime Dion Cassius, Histor. Rom. Lib. 55. pag. 564. Cujus hæc sunt verba, Οἱ εἰκοσὶ οἱ καὶ Οὐαλερείαι καὶ Νικηφόροι ὀνομασμένοι καὶ ἐν Βρεττανίᾳ τῇ ἀνω ὄντες (i. e.) Legio vicesima quæ Valeriana & Victrix apellatur, est in Britannia Superiori nempe Cestrie, & ibidem ἐκ τοῖς μὲν ἐν Βρεττανίᾳ τῇ κατω (i. e.) Legio sexta est in Britannia inferiori scilicet Eboraci. Ubi observandum, quod Legio vicesima non dicitur a Dione, Valens, & Victrix, ut ab aliis, sed Valeria, seu Valerianas, & Victrix.

LEG. XXV. V.] i. e. Legionis vicesimæ Valentis vel Valerianæ Victricis. Videri posset debere legi Legionis vicesimæ quintæ Victricis. Sed suspicor V. priorem a sculptore, vel ob imperitiam tiam (ut artifices ejusmodi fuerunt meri opifices, & homines alias indocti) vel per angustiam loci cum sit in fine lineæ propius ad XX adjungi quam deberet, nam consultis authoribus, non inveni Legionem ullam extitisse vicesimam quintam dictam, præsertim Antonini Pii temporibus, quo imperante facta est hæc Inscriptio, ut apparet ex subscriptis consulibus Dion Cassius, vir Consularis & doctus recenser accuratissimum Catalogum Legionum Historiæ Romana Libro 55, pag. 564. Pancirolus etiam in Comment. in Notiziam dignitatum utriusque Imperii, pag. 61, 62. 63. varios adfert Catalogos Legionum, & quæ sub Augusto fuerunt, & quas addiderunt Imperatores alii sequentes, eosque Catalogos desumptos e variis authoribus, & ex illa Marmoreâ Columnâ quæ Roma servabatur in Capitolio, in quibus omnibus nulla sit mentio Legionis ullius, quæ vicesima quinta est appellata, Ptolomeus etiam, qui vixit & scripsit ipsis Antonini Pii temporibus, affirmat tres tantum Legiones venisse in Britanniam, viz. Legionem sextam, Legionem vicesimam, & Legionem secundam Augustam, quod idem etiam asserit Pancirollus, pag. 142. Idem & Dion Cassius in loco supra citato. Huc addamus quoque Camdeni nostri sententiam, qui de Urbe Cestriâ loquens, hæc habet verba. Legionem XX quam Valentem Victricem, atque Valeriam Victricem alii falso dicunt, hæc in Urbe, egisse Ptolomeus Antoninus & Septimii Getæ nummus antiquus comprobant. E quo hanc etiam Coloniam fuisse constat: Inscribitur enim in parte nummi aversâ Col. Divana. LEG. XX. Victrix. Ita Camdenus, pag. at bona cum venia Camdeni, Dion Cassius vir magnæ dignitatis &

optimæ fidei Historicus, Legionum vicesimam vocat Valeriam, & non Valentem Victricem, ut ejus verba Græca superius in hac charta descripsi. Sed in super etiam in oppido quodam Westmorlandiæ quod Crowdendalewaith appellatur, non ita pridem effossus est lapis cum hac inscriptione VARONIVS . . . ECTUS LEG. XX. V. V. vel sic LEG. XX. V. V. Ubi V. prior longe distat ab XX. i. e. Varonius Præfectus Legionis vicesimæ Valeriæ, vel Valentis Victricis. Ergo nullo modo potest nostro in lapide legi vicesimæ quintæ Legionis, ultimo quod Legio vicesima stationem habuit in hac Urbe Cæstria manifestissimè apparet ex aliquot pulcherimis lateribus ante non multos annos effossis juxta plateam, quæ ducit ad Pontem, & adhuc visendis, hanc Epigraphen planis & plenis literis insculptam LEGIO VICESIMA VICTRIX & nihil præterea, præ se ferentibus.

COMMODO ET LATERANO COS.] Hoc ipso anno quo Commodus & Laternus sunt Consules Romani. In Fastis Romanis sedulo consultis mihi tandem occurrerunt Lucius Ælius Commodus, & Sextilius Lateranus descripti Consules in anno decimo septimo Antonini Pii, Imperatoris Romani, quibus consentit Cassiodori Chronicon, & in eo sunt sola nuda nomina, ut in ipso lapide nisi quod duorum annorum spatio differt, qui quidem Antoninus Pius, in imperio proxime successit Adriano Imperatori, & juxta veteres Ecclesiasticos Historicos, confirmante Baronio in Annalibus, Antoninus Pius Imperium suscepit in anno post natum Christum Dominum, centesimo & quadragesimo (imperavit annos viginti tres) sic annus decimus septimus illius imperii, quo quo ipso anno Commodus & Lateranus erant Consules, fuit annus post natum Christum centesimus & quinquagesimus septimus. Hinc apparet quod hoc anno Christi præsente currente 1671. præterierunt anni mille quingenti tredecem, ex quo lapis hic insculptus fuit hac Inscriptione.

V. S. L. M.] Distinctæ literæ in ima lapidis tabula subscriptæ signant Votum solvit Lubens merito. Lubens (i. e.) non coactus, sed sponte, prompte, animo, volenter & lubenter, gratio, quia si quis apud Romanos in rebus adversis, in periculis & angustiis coarctatus votum Diis nuncupasset, & postea liberatus voti sui solutionem ad sumptus evitandos neglexisset (periclitantes ad votum solvendum proni sunt, ad votum solvendum quando liberati non ira) hunc hominem velut ingratum, fraudulentum & quodam modo sacrilegum Romanæ leges coercebant, & cum superadditâ multâ invicem cogeant ad votum persolvendum. Et iste sic reus est damnatus voti, ob id infamis postea semper habebatur, ideo generosus hic noster Elupius addit se lubentem solvere. Merito est participium ut refertur ad substantivum Jovi primum in lapide vocabulum (i. e.) Jovi merito vel presenti. Nempe quia preces Elupii periclitantis audivisset, quod petebat dedisset, victorem & incolumem reduxisset, ideo meruisset hanc aram ab Elupio Juppiter & in eâ sacrificium Thuris offerendum.

Ad nobilem hunc lapidem, quando accedens ut Inscriptionem ulterius inspicerem inveni Cæmetarios opifices, cum nuper effossam & humi jacentem stolidè spectantes & calcantes etiam, ut Gallus in sterquilinio gemmam.
